Films, 1894-2015 Roy Liebman, 2017-02-20 Many Broadway stars appeared in Hollywood cinema from its earliest days. Some were 19th century stage idols who reprised famous roles on film as early as 1894. One was born as early as 1829. Another was cast in the performance during which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated. One took her stage name from her native state. Some modern day stars also began their careers on Broadway before appearing in films. This book details the careers of 300 performers who went from stage to screen in all genres of film. A few made only a single movie, others hundreds. Each entry includes highlights of the performer's career, a list of stage appearances, and a filmography. Ebony, 2004-11. This text has now been revised again to incorporate the latest developments, for instance the current success of children's and crossover literature such as that of J. K. Rowling and Philip Pullman. However, the Companion also remains faithful to Sir Paul Harvey's original vision of an authoritative work placing English literature in its widest context. No other volume offers such extensive exploration of the classical roots of English literature and the European authors and works that influenced its development. The appendices have also been updated: the winners of the major literary awards and the chronology spanning a thousand years of English literature from Beowulf to Small Island. Informed by the latest scholarly thinking and comprehensively cross-referenced to guide the reader to topics of related interest, the revised 6th edition reaffirms the pre-eminence of the Companion as the best available single volume guide to English literature. BOOK JACKET. Time, Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1988. New Statesman, 1996. Photoplay Movies & Video, 1982.
