the world's Catholic population With Pope John Paul II ailing the time for a new conclave draws nearer and Rome is preparing for over 6 000 journalists and innumerable interested onlookers to descend on the Eternal City to witness the election of the next leader of the Catholic Church In The Conclave prominent Catholic historian Michael Walsh takes readers through the history of conclaves past highlighting the vendettas feuds and political intrigues that have colored the selection of a new pontiff An entertaining history of the secret deliberations colorful stories and even bloody events that surround the making and unmaking of popes The Conclave is a great story a great history and an important work for anyone interested in the papacy
