

Slavery in history
The Middle Passage
Justifications

Key terms: Slavs, Middle Passage, Atlantic Slave Trade, chattel slavery, "Lay of Ham," mercantilism, Navigation Acts

Middle Passage

- Middle stage of triangular trade between Africa, the "New" World, and the "Old" World
- 1-4 months (mid-1700s, about 6 weeks)
- Unequivocally horrible
 - 1 in 5 (20%) died during trip
 - Shackled laying down; 18 inches of clearance
 - Little food/water- given no medical attention
 - Different from how it is in the colonies, because they're expensive
 - Becomes sick: thrown overboard because it could spread
 - Resistance; 55 known slave insurrections; suicide

Statistics: Atlantic Slave Trade

- Between 1500-1870, 11 million persons survive the middle passage
 - Majority men between ages 15-30
 - 1800: $800-$1200/per ($32-$40k today)
- 50% to the Caribbean Islands (sugar plantations)
- 30% to Brazil (sugar, rice, cotton)
- 10% to Spanish colonies (mines)
 - Trying to convert rather than acquire slaves
 - Use natives instead of importing slaves
- 5% to British North America (tobacco, rice, indigo; later cotton)
 - 500,000 total; concentrated in the South
 - Chattel Slavery; life-long; condition inherited by the mother
 - Mother instead of father because it's easier to find the mother than the father, especially because sometimes it was the slave owner
 - Results: although the slave trade is banned in 1807, the "peculiar institution" is entrenched:
 - 1790: 688,000 slaves; 1860: 4,000,000 slaves

Justification

- Racial
 - Non-whites, inherently savage and inferior (Natives, Africans, African-Americans, etc.)
 - Science: Crania Americana- skull/brain size
- Religious
 - Catholics (Irish)
 - "Curse of Ham" Genesis 9:20-27 (Ham was dark skinned?)

A Concise History of Modern Korea Michael J. Seth, 2010 This comprehensive and balanced history of modern Korea explores the social economic and political issues it has faced since being catapulted into the wider world at the end of the nineteenth century Placing this formerly insular society in a global context Michael J Seth describes how this ancient culturally and ethnically homogeneous society first fell victim to Japanese imperialist expansionism and then was arbitrarily divided in half after World War II Seth traces the postwar paths of the two Koreas with different political and social systems and different geopolitical orientations as they evolved into sharply contrasting societies South Korea after an unpromising start became one of the few postcolonial developing states to enter the ranks of the first world with a globally competitive economy a democratic political system and a cosmopolitan and dynamic culture By contrast North Korea became one of the world s most totalitarian and isolated societies a nuclear power with an impoverished and famine stricken population Considering the radically different and historically unprecedented trajectories of the two Koreas Seth assesses the insights they offer for understanding not only modern Korea but the broader perspective of world history

History and National Ideology in Greek Postmodernist Fiction Gerasimus Katsan, 2013-04-04 History and National Ideology in Greek Postmodernist Fiction investigates the ways postmodernist literary techniques have been adopted by Greek authors Taking into consideration the global impetus of postmodernism the book examines its local implications Framed by a discussion of major postmodernist thinkers the book argues for the ability of local cultures to retain their uniqueness in the face of globalization while at the same time adapting to the new global situation The combination of external global influences and the specific internal concerns of Greek national literature makes the emergence of postmodernism in Greece distinctive from that of other national contexts The book engages in larger theoretical debates about the crisis of national identity in the context of postmodern globalization and the resurgence of nationalist ideology either as a response to globalization or the exigencies of historical events This crisis has been brought on in part by the very postmodernist and poststructuralist questioning of the ideologies upon which nation states construct themselves The central argument of the book is that postmodernist Greek writers question the idea of national identity based on both the impact of globalization and a reexamination of the discourses of national ideology they suggest a turn away from the traditional concerns with cultural homogeneity towards an acceptance of multiplicity and diversity which is reflected through experimentation with postmodernist literary techniques Consequently the unifying idea of this book is national identity as it is reconfigured in recent contemporary novels My analysis incorporates the view that metafiction is a borderline or marginal discourse that exists on the boundary between fiction and criticism The book illuminates the connections between the formal concerns of contemporary authors and the larger debates and philosophical underpinnings of postmodernism in general

Reading for History in the Damascus Document Maxine L. Grossman, 2018-12-24 Scholars tend to view the Damascus Document as a historical source but a reading of the text in light of contemporary audience oriented literary criticism finds its emphasis in the ideological construction of history and communal identity rather than in the preservation of a historical record An introduction to contemporary literary criticism is followed by a series of thematic readings focusing on historical narrative priestly imagery and gender in the covenant community Each theme is examined in terms of its potential for multiple sometimes contradictory interpretations and for its place in the larger sectarian discourse This study offers an alternative approach to the historiography of ancient Jewish sectarianism acknowledging the presence of competing claims to shared traditions and the potential for changes in textual interpretation over time or among diverse communities
