History Paper 2 Memorandum For Grade 12 June 2014:

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics

American Military Communities in West Germany John W. Lemza, 2016-05-13 On April 28 1946 a small group of American wives and children arrived at the port of Bremerhaven West Germany the first of thousands of military family members to make the trans Atlantic journey They were the basis of a network of military communities Little Americas that would spread across the postwar German landscape During a 45 year period which included some of the Cold War s tensest moments their presence confirmed America s resolve to maintain Western democracy in the face of the Soviet threat Drawing on archival sources and personal narratives this book explores these enclaves of Americanism from the U S government s perspective to the grassroots view of those who made their homes in Cold War Europe These families faced many challenges in balancing their military missions with their daily lives during a period of dynamic global change The author describes interaction in American communities that were sometimes separated sometimes connected with their German neighbors China as a Twenty-First Century Naval Power Michael A McDevitt,2020-10-15 Xi Jinping has made his ambitions for the People's Liberation Army PLA perfectly clear there is no mystery what he wants first that China should become a great maritime power and secondly that the PLA become a world class armed force by 2050 He wants this latter objective to be largely completed by 2035 China as a Twenty First Century Naval Power focuses on China's navy and how it is being transformed to satisfy the world class goal Beginning with an exploration of why China is seeking to become such a major maritime power author Michael McDevitt first explores the strategic rationale behind Xi's two objectives China's reliance on foreign trade and overseas interests such as China's Belt and Road strategy In turn this has created concerns within the senior levels of China's military about the vulnerability of its overseas interests and maritime life lines is a major theme McDevitt dubs this China's sea lane anxiety and traces how this has required the PLA Navy to evolve from a near seas focused navy to one that has global reach a blue water navy He details how quickly this transformation has taken place thanks to a patient step by step approach and abundant funding The more than 10 years of anti piracy patrols in the far reaches of the Indian Ocean has acted as a learning curve accelerator to blue water status McDevitt then explores the PLA Navy's role in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean He provides a detailed assessment of what the PLAN will be expected to do if Beijing chooses to attack Taiwan potentially triggering combat with America's first responders in East Asia especially the U S Seventh Fleet and U S Fifth Air Force He conducts a close exploration of how the PLA Navy fits into China's campaign plan aimed at keeping reinforcing U S forces at arm's length what the Pentagon calls anti access and area denial A2 AD if war has broken out over Taiwan or because of attacks on U S allies and friends that live in the shadow of China McDevitt does not know how Xi defines world class but the evidence from the past 15 years of building a blue water force has already made the PLA Navy the second largest globally capable navy in the world This book concludes with a forecast of what Xi's vision of a world class navy might look like in the next fifteen years when the 2035 deadline is reached Asia's Reckoning Richard McGregor,2018-12-04 A Financial Times Best Book of 2017 A shrewd and knowing book Robert D Kaplan The Wall Street Journal A compelling and impressive read The Economist Skillfully crafted and well argued Jeffrey Wasserstrom Financial Times An excellent modern history provides the context needed to make sense of the region's present and future Joyce Lau South China Morning Post A history of the combative military diplomatic and economic relations among China Japan and the United States since the 1970s and the potential crisis that awaits them Richard McGregor's Asia's Reckoning is a compelling account of the widening geopolitical cracks in a region that has flourished under an American security umbrella for more than half a century The toxic rivalry between China and Japan two Asian giants consumed with endless history wars and ruled by entrenched political dynasties is threatening to upend the peace underwritten by Pax Americana since World War II Combined with Donald Trump's disdain for America's old alliances and China's own regional ambitions east Asia is entering a new era of instability and conflict If the United States laid the postwar foundations for modern Asia now the anchor of the global economy Asia's Reckoning reveals how that structure is falling apart With unrivaled access to archives in the United States and Asia as well as to many of the major players in all three countries Richard McGregor has written a tale that blends the tectonic shifts in diplomacy with bitter domestic politics and the personalities driving them It is a story not only of an overstretched America but also of the rise and fall and rise of the great powers of Asia The about turn of Japan from a colossus seemingly poised for world domination to a nation in inexorable decline in the space of two decades has few parallels in modern history as does the rapid rise of China a country whose military is now larger than those of Japan South Korea Taiwan and southeast Asia's combined The confrontational course on which China and Japan are set is no simple spat between neighbors the United States would be involved on the side of Japan in any military conflict between the two countries The fallout would be an economic tsunami affecting manufacturing centers trade routes and political capitals on every continent Richard McGregor's book takes us behind the headlines of his years reporting as the Financial Times's Beijing and Washington bureau chief to show how American power will stand or fall on its ability to hold its ground in Asia

Women of the Foreign Office Elizabeth Warburton, Richard Warburton, 2021-03-19 Since the suffrage campaigns in the early twentieth century the advancement of women's rights in the UK has been nonstop Proponents of the cause have aimed for equality across all sectors personal and civil rights employment rights equal pay and yet Britain's first official female ambassador did not take up her position until 1976 Many obstacles lay between a capable educated woman and the fulfilment of her potential Here Elizabeth and Richard Warburton cast a detailed eye over the advancement of women in the Foreign Office as diplomats ambassadors ministers and Foreign Secretary Leaving no stone unturned they discuss the culturally conservative closed pillar of the Foreign Office in the context of the times and of the development of women's rights both in the UK and across the first world Supported by first person accounts they explore the stories of those who successfully broke through the constraints of convention prejudice and law and why Coyote's Swing David Edward Walker, 2023-12-01 A Native foster youth brings a completed Pfizer Corporation's PTSD Self Quiz she found in a U S Indian Health Service clinic waiting room to her psychologist hoping a new diagnosis will allow her to discontinue her current stimulant medication After advocating on her behalf and that of other Native clients in his care the psychologist is put on a performance improvement plan by clinic supervisors Subsequently a nurse practitioner at the clinic sends a letter to the Secretary of the U S Department of Health and Human Services regarding concerns over poor medical care and infection control only to be transferred out shortly after Coyote's Swing reveals how the U S mental health system reframes Native American reactions to oppression and marginalization into mental disorders and mental illness Contemporary practices of the

Race, Racism, and Higher Education Kalwant Bhopal,Martin Myers,2024-12-26 Drawing upon current debates on inequalities in higher education particularly those of race and class and based on a Bourdieusian discussion of the relational nature of different capitals and competition for such capitals this must read text explores how Black and minority ethnic BME students navigate the university and the relational competition for capitals and status With original accounts of the experiences of BME students in higher education this book draws on interviews with 58 students across three different universities to further understand experiences of how BME students navigate the predominantly White spaces of UK universities It explores how racial inequalities continue to persist in higher education and demonstrates that greater attention needs to be made to the transitions made not just into higher education but from higher education. It evidences how types of support offered by different universities to different types of students ensure systemic disadvantages are reinforced and that career outcomes are embodied and legitimised in students in the practices fostered by their university. Identifying that racism is not a new phenomenon in UK higher education but that it has adapted to changing socio economic conditions this is a must read book for anyone working in higher education or with an interest in the experiences of BME students through the higher education system. Resources in Education, 1998. Entrepreneurship and Global Cities Nikolai Mouraviev, Nada K.

Kakabadse, 2019-05-29 Global cities with a largely cosmopolitan environment such as Auckland Berlin Dubai London New York Shanghai or Singapore are successfully developing and attracting entrepreneurs from all over the world. This book elucidates the policy approaches related to the formation of the cosmopolitan environment that supports entrepreneurship in large urban areas. The book's core theme is the relationship between cosmopolitanism and entrepreneurship with the latter viewed as a key driver of economic growth sustainability and prosperity. The book argues that successful entrepreneurship rests on the two pillars of the cosmopolitan environment: diversity and the creation of business opportunities. In contrast to globalisation's standardised solutions in policy commerce banking and social issues, cosmopolitanism allows individualised value and solutions whereby actors entrepreneurs businesses families interest groups governments non governmental organisations and virtual communities enjoy diversity as a norm. The book pays special attention to under researched topics such as threats to sustainability in cosmopolitan cities why cosmopolitan cities attract immigrants with a highly independent mindset the impact of religious norms on female and male entrepreneurs varying experiences of local and expatriate entrepreneurs and the differences in doing business by female entrepreneurs stemming from their nationalities and residence status. The book offers conceptual insights into the enablers of entrepreneurship in cosmopolitan cities and urban governance complemented by case studies based on fieldwork in Dubai Hamburg Istanbul Karachi Kyiv London Moscow and Tel Aviv. The book will appeal to those who study or teach cosmopolitanism globalisation or urban development concepts and those professionals who are considering the possibility of doing business or working as an expatriate in a cosmopolitan city.

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley

Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe's anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis. Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives. This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis. The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played.

Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past. Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies.

Despite The State: Why India Lets Its People Down And How They Cope M. Rajshekhar, About the Book A LUCID NECESSARY ACCOUNT OF HOW DRASTICALLY THE INDIAN STATE FAILS ITS CITIZENS The story of democratic failure is usually read at the level of the nation while the primary bulwarks of democratic functioning the states get overlooked This is a tale of India's states of why they build schools but do not staff them with teachers favour a handful of companies so much that others slip into losses wage wars with their neighbours while allowing rampant sand mining and groundwater extraction harness citizens' right to vote but brutally crack down on their right to dissent Reporting from six states over thirty three months award winning investigative journalist M Rajshekhar delivers a necessary account of a deep crisis that has gone largely unexamined

The Political Economy of Dissent Peter Blunt, Cecilia Escobar, Vlassis Missos, 2025-10-22 In 2020 Noam Chomsky asserted that the time to panic about the existential threats posed by nuclear war global warming and the stifling of informed debate in supposedly open and democratic societies was upon us and that it was the duty of concerned citizens to act accordingly Hastened by the lingering aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis the COVID 19 pandemic the proxy war in Ukraine the decline of US economic hegemony and increasing hostility between the US and China he concluded in early 2023 that unless the US could be persuaded to cooperate with its declared adversaries and capitalism could be overthrown or defanged there was little hope for survival The authors of this book argue that achieving these ends will depend greatly on effective individual and collective worldwide dissent The book analyses and exemplifies dissent in the main domains of institutionalised capitalist control and the manufacture of uninformed consent namely political economy education the media and IT work and trade unions the commons and communities and culture And thereby gives voice and hope to the downtrodden and marginalised including indigenous peoples and those of the global south It provides an uplifting counter to the otherwise seemingly overwhelming expression of uninformed consent one that will inspire by example and be an antidote to the fear and defeatism instilled by capitalist intransigence indoctrination and control The book is addressed to students scholars and researchers primarily but its breadth of coverage authenticity and plain writing style will appeal to activists community organisers and concerned citizens both in industrialised countries and the global south
