Study the source and answer the questions that follow.

SOURCE A

World War I, also known as the Great War, began in 1914 after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria. His murder catapulted into a war across Europe that lasted until 1918. During the conflict, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and the Ottoman Empire (the Central Powers) fought against Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy, Romania, Canada, Japan and the United States (the Allied Powers). Thanks to new military technologies and the horrors of trench warfare, World War I saw unprecedented levels of carnage and destruction. By the time the war was over and the Allied Powers claimed victory, more than 16 million people—soldiers and civilians alike—were dead.

History Paper March 2014 Grade 1:

History in the Age of Abundance? Ian Milligan, 2019-03-28 Believe it or not the 1990s are history As historians turn to study this period and beyond they will encounter a historical record that is radically different from what has ever existed before Old websites social media blogs photographs and videos are all part of the massive quantities of digital information that technologists librarians archivists and organizations such as the Internet Archive have been collecting for the past three decades In History in the Age of Abundance Ian Milligan argues that web based historical sources and their archives present extraordinary opportunities as well as daunting technical and ethical challenges for historians Through case studies he outlines the approaches methods tools and search functions that can help a historian turn web documents into historical sources He also considers the implications of the size and scale of digital sources which amount to more information than historians have ever had at their fingertips and many of which are by and about people who have traditionally been absent from the historical record Scrutinizing the concept of the web and the mechanics of its archives Milligan explains how these new media challenge reshape and enrich both the historical profession and the historical record A wake up call for historians of the twenty first century History in the Age of Abundance is an essential introduction to the way web archives work what possibilities they open up what risks they entail and what the shift to digital information means for historians their professional training and organization and society as a whole

Before Blackwood's Alex Benchimol, 2015-10-06 This collection of essays is the result of a major conference focusing specifically on the role of Scotland's print culture in shaping the literature and politics of the long eighteenth century In contrast to previous studies this work treats Blackwood's Magazine as the culmination of a long tradition rather than a starting point

Doing Working-Class History Oliver Betts, Laura Harrison, Laura Christine Price, 2024-11-04 Economic and political uncertainty has brought the language of class especially discussion of the working class to a broad audience across scholarship and social debate This introductory volume shows how the history of the working class has is and can be researched written and represented The book is structured in three parts perspective context and application Each offers an introduction to both classic historiography and new ideas and methodologies With chapters covering a span of the years c 1750 present the book focuses on three essential questions What is working class history and what should it become What can a focus on working class history reveal What are the possibilities of this research in the university classroom the heritage world and beyond Doing Working Class History will appeal to students and scholars of working class history whether relative newcomers to the field or veteran researchers interested in new approaches and material It will also be of interest to local and family historians museum and heritage professionals and general readers

American Military Communities in West Germany John W. Lemza, 2016-05-13 On April 28 1946 a small group of American wives and children arrived at the port of Bremerhaven West Germany the first of thousands of military family members to make the trans Atlantic journey They were the basis of a network of military communities Little Americas that would spread across the postwar German landscape During a 45 year period which included some of the Cold War s tensest moments their presence confirmed America s resolve to maintain Western democracy in the face of the Soviet threat Drawing on archival sources and personal narratives this book explores these enclaves of Americanism from the U S government s perspective to the grassroots view of those who made their homes in Cold War Europe These families faced many challenges in balancing their military missions with their daily lives during a period of dynamic global change The author describes interaction in American communities that were sometimes separated sometimes connected with their German neighbors

Routledge Handbook of Football Studies John Hughson, Kevin Moore, Ramón Spaaij, Joseph Maguire, 2016-10-04 Football is unquestionably the world s most popular and influential sport There is no corner of the globe in which the game is not played or followed More countries are affiliated to FIFA football s governing body than to the United Nations The sport has therefore become an important component of our social cultural political and economic life The Routledge Handbook of Football Studies is a landmark work of reference going further than any other book in considering the historical and contemporary significance of football around the world Written by a team of leading sport scholars the book covers a broad range of disciplines from history sociology politics and business to philosophy law and media studies The central section of the book examines key themes and issues in football studies such as the World Cup and international competition governance and ownership fandom and celebrity The concluding section offers in depth surveys of the culture and organisation of football in each of the regional confederations from UEFA to CONCACAF This book will be fascinating reading for any serious football fan and an essential resource for advanced students or scholars undertaking research in football or sport studies and any practitioner or policy maker working in football

Imperial Wine Jennifer Regan-Lefebvre, 2022-04-05 A fascinating and approachable deep dive into the colonial roots of the global wine industry Imperial Wine is a bold rigorous history of Britain s surprising role in creating the wine industries of Australia South Africa and New Zealand Here historian Jennifer Regan Lefebvre bridges the genres of global commodity history and imperial history presenting provocative new research in an accessible narrative This is the first book to argue that today s global wine industry exists as a result of settler colonialism and that imperialism was central not incidental to viticulture in the British colonies Wineries were established almost immediately after the colonization of South Africa Australia and New Zealand as part of a civilizing mission tidy vines heavy with fruit were symbolic of Britain s subordination of foreign lands Economically and culturally nineteenth century settler winemakers saw the British market as paramount However British drinkers were apathetic towards what they pejoratively called colonial wine The tables only began to turn after the First World War when colonial wines were marketed as cheap and patriotic and started to find their niche among middle and working class British drinkers This trend combined with social and cultural shifts after the Second World War laid the foundation for the New World revolution in the 1980s making Britain into a confirmed country of wine drinkers and a massive market for New World

wines These New World producers may have only received critical acclaim in the late twentieth century but Imperial Wine shows that they had spent centuries wooing and indeed manufacturing a British market for inexpensive colonial wines This book is sure to satisfy any curious reader who savors the complex stories behind this commodity chain Mastering Primary History Karin Doull, Christopher Russell, Alison Hales, 2019-02-21 Mastering Primary History introduces the primary history curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning history irresistible Topics covered include Current developments in history History as an irresistible activity History as a practical activity Skills to develop in history Promoting curiosity Assessing children in history Practical issues This guide includes examples of children's work case studies readings to reflect upon and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect The book draws on the experience of three leading professionals in primary history Karin Doull Christopher Russell and Alison Hales to provide the essential guide to teaching history for all trainee primary teachers

Show Thyself a Man Mixon, Gregory, 2016-07-25 In Show Thyself a Man Gregory Mixon explores the ways African Americans in postbellum Georgia used the militia as a vehicle to secure full citizenship respect and a more stable place in society As citizen soldiers black men were empowered to get involved in politics secure their own financial independence and publicly commemorate black freedom with celebrations such as Emancipation Day White Georgians however used the militia as a different symbol of freedom to ensure the postwar white right to rule This book is a forty year history of black militia service in Georgia and the determined disbandment process that whites undertook to destroy it connecting this chapter of the post emancipation South to the larger history of militia participation by African descendant people through the Western hemisphere and Latin America Handbook on Gender and Health Jasmine Gideon, 2016-05-27 This Handbook brings together a groundbreaking collection of chapters that uses a gender lens to explore health health care and health policy in both the Global South and North Empirical evidence is drawn from a variety of different settings and points to the many ways in which the gendered dimensions of health have become reworked across the globe This collection includes insightful contributions from 56 leading authorities from Africa the Americas Asia Europe and the Middle East offering a wealth of knowledge theoretical reflection and empirical detail on the essential elements surrounding gender and health Topics covered include theoretical approaches to understanding gender and health migration sexuality ageing masculinities climate change and sexual and reproductive rights Split into four thematic sections this book strives to develop a clear road map towards achieving gender justice in health The Handbook on Gender and Health will be an important resource for researchers students and instructors of health policy and family and gender studies Contributors include G Alvarez Minte E Ansoleaga Moreno L Artazcoz A E Birn R A Burgess A Coates I Cort s Franch S Del Pino K Devries X D az Berr L Doyal K Elzein V Escib Ag ir B Eveslage C Ewig J Gideon J Gon alves Mart n B Gough H Grundlingh M Gutmann R R Habib M C Inhorn D Johnston D

Mass Intellectuality and Democratic Leadership in Higher Education Joss Winn, Richard Hall, 2017-08-24

Higher education in the UK is in crisis The idea of the public university is under assault and both the future of the sector and its relationship to society are being gambled Higher education is increasingly unaffordable its historic institutions are becoming untenable and their purpose is resolutely instrumental What and who have led us to this crisis What are the alternatives To whom do we look for leadership in revealing those alternatives This book critically analyses intellectual leadership in the university exploring ongoing efforts from around the world to create alternative models for organizing higher education and the production of knowledge Its authors offer their experience and views from inside and beyond the structures of mainstream higher education in order to reflect on efforts to create alternatives In the process the volume asks is it possible to reimagine the university democratically and cooperatively If so what are the implications for leadership not just within the university but also in terms of higher education's relationship to society The authors argue that mass higher education is at the point where it no longer reflects the needs capacities and longterm interests of global society An alternative role and purpose is required based upon mass intellectuality or the real possibility of democracy in learning and the production of knowledge

Beyond Energy Jacopo Maria Pepe, 2017-11-22 Jacopo Maria Pepe examines the rapid development of non energy transport infrastructure in the broader Eurasian space By doing so the author considers the ongoing structural transformation of the Eurasian continent against the backdrop of deepening commercial interconnectivity in Eurasia into broader areas of trade supported by the rapid development of rail connectivity He frames this process in a long wave historical analysis and considers in detail the geopolitical geo economic and theoretical implications of deepening physical connectivity for the relationships among China Russia Central Asia and the European Union

Anti-genocide Activists and the Responsibility to Protect Annette Jansen, 2017-05-08 Although the Genocide Convention was already adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1948 it was only in the late 1990s that groups of activists emerged calling for military interventions to halt mass atrocities The question of who these anti genocide activists are and what motivates them to call for the use of violence to end violence is undoubtedly worthy of exploration Based on extensive field research Anti genocide Activists and the Responsibility to Protect analyses the ideological convictions that motivate two groups of anti genocide activists East Timor solidarity activists and Responsibility to Protect R2P advocates The book argues that there is an existential undercurrent to the call for mass atrocity interventions that mass atrocities shock the activists belief in a humanity that they hold to be sacred The book argues that the ensuing rise of anti genocide activism signals a shift in humanitarian sensibilities to human suffering and violence which may have substantial implications for moral judgements on human lives at peril in the humanitarian and human rights community This book provides a fascinating insight into the worldviews of activists which will be of interest to practitioners and researchers of human rights activism humanitarian advocacy and peace building Latin America's Emerging Middle Classes J. Dayton-Johnson, 2015-01-27 Politicians business leaders and citizens look with hope to the Latin American middle class for political stability and purchasing power but the economic position of the middle class remains vulnerable The contributors document the remarkable emergence of this middle group in Latin America whose measurement turns out not to be an easy task Beyond Every Child Matters Catherine Simon, 2016-12-01 The United Kingdom's Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition government 2010-15 was responsible for some of the most radical changes to education policy for decades Beyond Every Child Matters provides a critical overview of developments in education and social welfare policy in the years following the 2010 general election It explores the conceptual background of a Big Society used to frame Coalition policy and shows how the underlying spectre of neoliberalism both creates issues for policy attention and undermines ensuing policy solutions This book charts those changes which have impacted upon education and schooling in England and Wales and is divided into two parts Part I analyses Conservative philosophical thought and policy discussions that underpin the social welfare and education policies introduced under the Conservative led coalition government of 2010-15 and the subsequent Conservative administration since 2015 Part II looks at these policies in detail and concludes with a discussion of possible alternative policy approaches Set against a backdrop of unprecedented economic crisis and austerity Beyond Every Child Matters will be of interest to students of education and welfare policy academics and researchers Ghosts of the Somme Jonathan Evershed, 2018-05-30 Once assumed to be a driver or even cause of conflict commemoration during Ireland's Decade of Centenaries came to occupy a central place in peacebuilding efforts The inclusive and cross communal reorientation of commemoration particularly of the First World War has been widely heralded as signifying new forms of reconciliation and a greater maturity in relationships between Ireland and the UK and between Unionists and Nationalists in Northern Ireland In this study Jonathan Evershed interrogates the particular and implicitly political claims about the nature of history memory and commemoration that define and sustain these assertions and explores some of the hidden and countervailing transcripts that underwrite and disrupt them Drawing on two years of ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Belfast Evershed explores Ulster Loyalist commemoration of the Battle of the Somme its conflicted politics and its confrontation with official commemorative discourse and practice during the Decade of Centenaries He investigates how and why the myriad social political cultural and economic changes that have defined postconflict Northern Ireland have been experienced by Loyalists as a culture war and how commemoration is the means by which they confront and challenge the perceived erosion of their identity He reveals the ways in which this brings Loyalists into conflict not only with the politics of Irish Nationalism but with the peacebuilding state and crucially with each other He demonstrates how commemoration works to reproduce the intracommunal conflicts that it claims to have overcome and interrogates its nuanced and perhaps counterintuitive function in conflict transformation

Women and museums 1850-1914 Kate Hill, 2016-07-01 This book recovers the significant contribution made by women to museums not just in obvious roles such as workers but also as donors visitors volunteers and patrons It suggests that women persistently acted to domesticate the museum by importing domestic objects and domestic regimes of value as well as by making museums more welcoming to children and even by stressing the importance of housekeeping at the museum At the same time women sought masculine careers in science and curatorship but found such aspirations hard to achieve their contribution tended to be kept within clear feminised areas The book will be of interest to those working on gender culture or museums in the period It sheds new light on women s material culture and material strategies education and professional careers and leisure practices It will form an important historical context for those working in contemporary museum studies

The Unmaking of Arab Socialism Ali Kadri, 2016-10-01 Conditions of malnutrition conflict or a combination of both characterize many Arab countries but this was not always so As in much of the developing world the immediate post independence period represented an age of hope and relative prosperity But imperialism did not sleep while these countries developed and it soon intervened to destroy these post independence achievements The two principal defeats and losses of territory to Israel in 1967 and 1973 as well as the others that followed left in their wake more than the destruction of assets and the loss of human lives the Arab World lost its ideology of resistance The Unmaking of Arab Socialism is an attempt to understand the reasons for Arab world s developmental descent from the pinnacle of Arab socialism to its present desolate conditions through an examination of the post colonial histories of Egypt Syria and Iraq

Rethinking the Civil War Era Paul D. Escott, 2018-05-04 Arguably no event since the American Revolution has had a greater impact on US history than the Civil War This devastating and formative conflict occupies a permanent place in the nation s psyche and continues to shape race relations economic development and regional politics Naturally an event of such significance has attracted much attention from historians and tens of thousands of books have been published on the subject Despite this breadth of study new perspectives and tools are opening up fresh avenues of inquiry into this seminal era In this timely and thoughtful book Paul D Escott surveys the current state of Civil War studies and explores the latest developments in research and interpretation He focuses on specific issues where promising work is yet to be done highlighting subjects such as the deep roots of the war the role of African Americans and environmental history among others He also identifies digital tools which have only recently become available and which allow researchers to take advantage of information in ways that were never before possible Rethinking the Civil War Era is poised to guide young historians in much the way that James M McPherson and William J Cooper Jr s Writing the Civil War The Quest to Understand did for a previous generation Escott eloquently charts new ways forward for scholars offering ideas questions and challenges His work will not only illuminate emerging research but will also provide inspiration for future research in a field that continues to adapt and change      Hometown Hamburg Frank Domurad, 2019-03-22 Through the study of Hamburg handicraft in the late Weimar Republic Hometown Hamburg addresses three intertwined problems in modern German history the role of institutionalized social political and cultural continuity versus contingency in the course of modern German development the impact of conflicting notions of social order on the survival of liberal democracy and the role of corporate politics in the rise of National Socialism It provides a theoretical and analytical framework for reintroducing the notion of historical continuity in the study of modern German history The book also supports the recent challenges to the notion of Hamburg as a liberal economic and political bastion a London on the Elbe in a nation of conservative and authoritarian governmental regimes Hometown Hamburg demonstrates why liberal and socialist Hamburg also remained a hotbed of corporate radicalism and underscores the fact that National Socialism was the only political party that presented a coherent vision of a corporate good society thereby making it attractive to hometown voters across the entire social spectrum in Hamburg and in Germany      Securing the MRAP James Hasik, 2021-08-16 Dwight D Eisenhower once quipped You will not find it difficult to prove that battles campaigns and even wars have been won or lost primarily because of logistics Military acquisition and procurement that is how a nation manages investments technologies programs and support is critical to wartime success or failure When unexpected battlefield problems arise how do the government the military and industry work together to ensure effective solutions During the American counterinsurgent campaign in Iraq the improvised explosive device emerged as a disruptive and devastating threat As Humvees and their occupants were ripped apart by IEDs it was clear that new solutions had to be found These solutions already existed but had not been procured highlighting the need for more effective marketing to the military by industry The ultimate successful response the mine resistant ambush protected vehicle or MRAP required years of entrepreneurial marketing by the defense industry In Securing the MRAP Lessons Learned in Marketing and Military Procurement James Hasik explores how these vehicles which the American military mostly rejected despite the great need for them eventually came to be adopted as the Pentagon's top procurement priority Hasik traces the story of the MRAP from the early 1970s to the future of mine resistant vehicles on the battlefields of tomorrow An important contribution to the seemingly disparate fields of marketing and defense policy Securing the MRAP is an eye opening revelation to defense industrialists military officers and government officials who want to understand how to avoid another IED Humvee debacle
