Race, Taste and the Grape Paul Nugent, 2024-03-28 With the introduction of wine to the Cape Colony it became associated locally with social extremes with the material trappings of privilege and taste on the one side and the stark realities of human bondage on the other By examining the history of Cape wine Paul Nugent offers a detailed history of how in South Africa race has shaped patterns of consumption The book takes us through the Liquor Act of 1928 which restricted access along racial lines intervention to address overproduction from the 1960s and then latterly in the wake of the fall of the Apartheid regime deregulation in the 1990s and South Africa's re entry into global markets We see how the industry struggled to embrace Black Economic Empowerment environmental diversity and the consumer market This book is an essential read for those interested in the history of wine and how it intersects with both South African and global history

Life Course, Work, and Labour in Global History Josef Ehmer, Carola Lentz, 2023-09-18 This multidisciplinary volume offers unique perspectives across the globe and throughout the centuries on the complexity of the nexus between work and the life course For industrialized regions from Germany and Western Europe to China and Japan it questions the widespread notion of an overall growing working life course instability since the 1970s For unindustrialized or industrializing regions from West Africa to state socialist East Central Europe as well as for transnational and transcontinental labour migrations it shows the enormous influence of the extended family and wider kin on individual pathways into and out of work For early modern Europe India and China and up to twentieth century state socialism and to current welfare states it stresses and concretizes the crucial impact of age and gender for both societal labour relations and individual work related decision making With all chapters based on original research the volume reflects a close cooperation between historians anthropologists and sociologists Its multidisciplinary approach finds expression in its methodological plurality reaching from archival research and sophisticated statistical analyses to biographical interviews and participant observation This mix allows to grasp the interaction between societal change and individual agency

The Rise of Africa's Middle Class Henning Melber, 2016-12-15 Across Africa a burgeoning middle class has become the poster child for the Africa rising narrative Ambitious aspirational and increasingly affluent this group is said to embody the values and hopes of the new Africa with international bodies ranging from the United Nations Development Programme to the World Bank regarding them as important agents of both economic development and democratic change This narrative however obscures the complex and often ambiguous role that this group actually plays in African societies Bringing together economists political scientists anthropologists and development experts and spanning a variety of case studies from across the continent this collection provides a much needed corrective to the received wisdom within development circles and provides a fresh perspective on social transformations in contemporary Africa

Multiple Secularities Beyond the West Marian

Burchardt, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Matthias Middell, 2015-02-17 Questions of secularity and modernity have become globalized but most studies still focus on the West This volume breaks new ground by comparatively exploring developments in five areas of the world some of which were hitherto situated at the margins of international scholarly discussions Africa the Arab World East Asia South Asia and Central and Eastern Europe In theoretical terms the book examines three key dimensions of modern secularity historical pathways cultural meanings and global entanglements of secular formations The contributions show how differences in these dimensions are linked to specific histories of religious and ethnic diversity processes of state formation and nation building They also reveal how secularities are critically shaped through civilizational encounters processes of globalization colonial conquest and missionary movements and how entanglements between different territorially grounded notions of secularity or between local cultures and transnational secular arenas unfold over time

Handbook of Critical Agrarian Studies Akram-Lodhi, A. H., Dietz, Kristina, Engels, Bettina, McKay, Ben M., 2021-12-14

Exploring the emerging and vibrant field of critical agrarian studies this comprehensive Handbook offers interdisciplinary insights from both leading scholars and activists to understand agrarian life livelihoods formations and processes of change It highlights the development of the field which is characterized by theoretical and methodological pluralism and innovation

Policy, Politics and Poverty in South Africa Jeremy Seekings, Nicoli Nattrass, Kasper, 2015-07-21 Seekings and Nattrass

explain why poverty persisted in South Africa after the transition to democracy in 1994 The book examines how public policies both mitigated and reproduced poverty and explains how and why these policies were adopted The analysis offers lessons for the study of poverty elsewhere in the world

Namibia and Germany: Negotiating the Past Reinhard

Kossler, 2015-08-12 100 years since the end of German colonial rule in Namibia the relationship between the former colonial power and the Namibian communities who were affected by its brutal colonial policies remains problematic and interpretations of the past are still contested This book examines the ongoing debates conflicts and confrontations over the past It scrutinises the consequences of German colonial rule its impact on the descendants of victims of the 1904-08 genocide Germany's historical responsibility and ways in which post colonial reconciliation might be achieved

Making Public in a

Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman, 2021-06-01 Building on the work of economic historian Douglass North and Ugandan political scholar Mahmood Mamdani Friedman argues that the difficulties besetting South African democracy are legacies of the past not products of the post 1994 era South Africa s democracy is often seen as a story of bright beginnings gone astray a pattern said to be common to Africa The negotiated settlement of 1994 it is claimed ended racial domination and created the foundation for a prosperous democracy but greedy politicians betrayed the promise of a new society In Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman astutely argues that this misreads the nature of contemporary South Africa Building on the work of the economic historian Douglass North and the political thinker Mahmood Mamdani Friedman shows that South African democracy s difficulties are legacies of the pre 1994 past The settlement which ushered in majority rule left intact core features of the apartheid economy and society The economy continues to exclude millions from its benefits while racial hierarchies have proved stubborn apartheid is discredited but the values of the pre 1948 colonial era the period of British colonization still dominate Thus South Africa s democracy supports free elections civil liberties and the rule of law but also continues past patterns of exclusion and domination Friedman reasons that this path dependence is not as is often claimed the result of constitutional compromises in 1994 that left domination untouched This bargain was flawed because it brought not too much compromise but too little Compromises extended political citizenship to all but there were no similar bargains on economic and cultural change Using the work of the radical sociologist Harold Wolpe Friedman shows that only negotiations on a new economy and society can free South Africans from the prison of the past In the Shadow of Policy Paul Hebinck, Ben Cousins, Henning de Klerk, Jonathan Denison, Ntombekhaya Faku, Derick Fay, Klara Jacobson, Petunia Khutswane, Rosalie Kingwill, Karin Kleinbooi, Zamide Madyibi, Francois Marais, Modise Moseki, Malebogo Phetlhu, Robert Ross, Dik Roth, Limpho Taoana, Harriët Tienstra, Wim van Averbek, Yves van Leynseele, 2013-10-01 Notions of land and agrarian reform are now well entrenched in post apartheid South Africa But what this reform actually means for everyday life is not clearly understood nor the way it will impact on the political economy In the Shadow of Policy explores the interface between the policy of land and agrarian reform and its implementation and between the decisions of policy experts and actual livelihood experiences in the fields and homesteads of land reform projects Starting with an overview of the socio historical context in which land and agrarian reform policy has evolved in South Africa the volume presents empirical case studies of land reform projects in the Northern Western and Eastern Cape provinces These draw on multiple voices from various sectors and provide a rich source of material and critical reflections to inform future policy and research agendas In the Shadow of Policy will be a key reference tool for those working in the area of development studies and land policy and for civil society groups and NGOs involved in land restitution Dialogue in Places of Learning Adam Cooper, 2016-06-23 Showing how youth from one of the poorest and most violent neighborhoods in Cape Town South Africa learn differently in three educational contexts in classrooms in a community hip hop crew on a youth radio show this book illuminates how South African schools like schools elsewhere subtly reproduce inequalities by sorting students into social hierarchies linked to assessments of their use of language Highlighting the voices and perspectives of young South Africans this case study of youth in the global South explores how language is linked to cultural mixing which occurred during colonialism and slavery and continues through patterns of global mobility Dialogue in Places of Learning Youth Amplified in South Africa demonstrates how language and learning are bound to space and place The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick, 2013-06-17 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country's liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women's associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa's class and racial barriers Handbook of Research on Fair Trade Laura T. Raynolds, Elizabeth A. Bennett, 2015-02-27 Fair trade critiques the historical inequalities inherent in international trade and seeks to promote social justice by creating alternative networks linking marginalized producers typically in the global South with progressive consumers typically in the global North

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music and Social Class Ian Peddie, 2020-02-06 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music and Social Class is the first extensive analysis of the most important themes and concepts in this field. Encompassing contemporary research in ethnomusicology, sociology, cultural studies, history, and race studies, the volume explores the intersections between music and class and how the meanings of class are asserted and denied, confused, and clarified through music. With chapters on key genres, traditions, and subcultures, as well as fresh and engaging directions for future scholarship, the volume considers how music has thought about and articulated social class. It consists entirely of original contributions written by internationally renowned scholars and provides an essential reference point for scholars interested in the relationship between popular music and social class. Chinese Migrants and Africa's Development Doctor Ben Lampert, Doctor May Tan-Mullins, Daphne Chang, Giles Mohan, 2014-06-12 China's recent stepping up of relations with Africa is one of the most significant developments on the African continent for decades. For some, it promises an end to Africa's dependent aid relationships as the Chinese bring expertise, technology, and a stronger business focus. But for others, it is no more than a new form of imperialism. This book is the first to systematically study the motivations, relationships, and impact of this migration. It focuses not just on the Chinese migrants but also on the perceptions of and linkages to their African hosts. By studying this everyday interaction, we get a much richer picture of whether this is South-South cooperation as political leaders would have us believe or a more complex relationship that can both compromise and encourage African development.

Red Road to Freedom Tom Lodge, 2022 Definitive and gripping narrative history of the Communist Party of South Africa Ports of Globalisation, Places of Creolisation Holger Weiss, 2015-11-16 This anthology addresses and analyses the transformation of interconnected spaces and spatial entanglements in the Atlantic rim during the era of the slave trade by focusing on the Danish possessions on the Gold Coast and their Caribbean islands of Saint Thomas, Saint Jan, and Saint Croix, as well as on the Swedish Caribbean island of Saint Barthélemy. The first part of the anthology addresses aspects of interconnectedness in West Africa, in particular the relationship between Africans and Danes on the Gold Coast. The second part of this volume examines various aspects of interconnectedness, creolisation, and experiences of Danish and Swedish slave rules in the Caribbean. Ports of Globalisation is now available in paperback for individual customers.
