The Amusement Park Jason Wood, 2017-01-20 Jason Wood is Director of Heritage Consultancy Services Lancaster UK and former Professor of Cultural Heritage at Leeds Metropolitan University UK CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country's problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and

American Defense Policy Miriam Krieger, Lynne Chandler Garcia, Lynne M. Chandler Garcia, John Riley, Will Atkins, 2021-08-10 Organized into three parts the ninth edition traces the impact that societal changes and emerging technologies are having as force enablers game changers or disrupters of American defense policy Small Arms Mia Bloom, 2019-05-15 Why do terrorist organizations use children to support their cause and carry out their activities Small Arms uncovers the brutal truth behind the mobilization of children by terrorist groups Mia Bloom and John Horgan show us the grim underbelly of society that allows and even encourages the use of children to conduct terrorist activities They provide readers with the who what when why and how of this increasingly concerning situation illuminating a phenomenon that to most of us seems abhorrent And yet they argue for terrorist groups the use of children carries many benefits Children possess skills that adults lack They often bring innovation and creativity Children are in fact a superb demographic from which to recruit if you are a terrorist Small Arms answers questions about recruitment strategies and tactics determines what makes a child terrorist and what makes him or her different from an adult one and charts the ways in which organizations use them The unconventional focus on child and youth militants allows the authors to in essence give us a biography of the child terrorist and the organizations that use them We are taken inside the mind of the adult and the child to witness that which perhaps most scares us The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis (Amsac) Joe L. Rempson, 2016-03-12 The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC cannot be solved by the school alone It is a race problem which can only be solved if we black males provide the leadership in tackling our three major demons which now mainly account for the problem IQ lag fatherless families crime AMSAC had its origin about 100 years ago when after the death of Washington DuBois gained ascendancy in our African American Garden of Eden and replaced Washingtons brains property and character gospel with a civil rights agenda That agenda has led to a civil rights fixation and our second bondage Victimology wherein being the victim has become part of our core identity and made us psychological slaves Rather than being proud and self reliant disproportionately we have come to see ourselves as victims who are entitled to system help and special treatment This bondage and it is a bondage vitiates our manhood and the energy and drive required to pursue the adaptation pathway paved by Washington but demonized by DuBois Return to that pathway and we can confront and conquer AMSAC and our three major demons Guided by history and the research evidence this book details how Its 20 chapters make for long reading but just by reading the first and last chapters you can get the message The motto of the proposed evidence based experimental program the African American Male Career Pathway Program AMCAP A special appeal is made to black athletes and entertainers to help propagate this motto and support the proposed high school student clubs Student AMCAPs in its implementation

Contours of Eurocentrism Marta Araújo, Silvia Rodríguez Maeso, 2015-11-19 This book proposes an approach to Eurocentrism as a paradigm of knowledge production and interpretation rooted in the Western narrative of modernity and its racial governmentalities Accordingly it interrogates the relationship between knowledge race and power at the heart of debates on the making and circulation of history opening up a tension not so much with other histories but with Eurocentrism's formulas of self assurance and attempts to accommodate other narratives The book is an interdisciplinary endeavor that engages with diverse political and academic contexts and debates that reveal understandings of coloniality modernity specifically in education Education and in particular history teaching is approached as a key arena in which to explore the re configuration of broader political and academic discourses and silences on power and race Moving beyond discussions on national identity and the multicultural curriculum it critically examines textbooks in Portugal and the discussions raised during empirical research with actors from a wide variety of fields such as academia policy and decision making schooling and the media These are addressed in relation to the international context that saw the consolidation of global and regional organizations such as UNESCO and the Council of Europe which established scientific knowledge as a key solution to political conflicts conventionally defined as exacerbated nationalism ethnocentrism and cultural misunderstandings Central to these discussions are the ideas of multiperspectivity and the inclusion of content about the other which are addressed in detail through a case study on depictions of the African national liberation movements This book aims to contribute to the critique of the contemporary workings of Eurocentrism and racism that have frustrated the struggles for the decolonization of knowledge and continue to shape our understandings of the world order in racially hierarchical terms by re centering the West Europe Dietary Nutrients, Additives and Fish Health Cheng-Sheng Lee, 2015-05-05 Fish nutrition can be the deciding factor between a robust and healthy farmed fish population and low aquaculture production In an age where chemicals and antibiotics are under greater scrutiny than ever a strong understanding of the role of nutrients and feed additives is essential in the aquaculture industry Dietary Nutrients Additives and Fish Health is a comprehensive review of dietary nutrients antinutritional factors and toxins and non nutrient dietary additives and their effects on fish performance and immune system function as well as overall health The book opens with an overview of fish immune systems and health Subsequent chapters delve into proteins and amino acids lipids and fatty acids carbohydrates beta glucans vitamins minerals antinutrients mycotoxins nucleotides prebiotics probiotics organic acids and their salts and plant extracts and their impacts on fish health growth and development The text then concludes with a chapter on feeding practices Authored by leaders in aquaculture Dietary Nutrients Additives and Fish Health will be an invaluable resource to graduate students researchers and professionals alike International Anti-Corruption Norms Cecily

Rose,2015-08-13 This book traces the creation of international anti corruption norms by states and other actors through four markedly different institutions the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development the United Nations the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and the Financial Action Task Force Each of these institutions oversees an international instrument that requires states to combat corruption Yet only the United Nations oversees anti corruption norms that take the sole form of a binding multilateral treaty The OECD has by contrast fostered the development of the binding 1997 OECD Anti Bribery Convention as well as non binding recommendations and guidance associated with treaty itself In addition the revenue transparency and anti money laundering norms developed through the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and the Financial Action Task Force respectively take the form of non binding instruments that have no relationship with multilateral treaties The creation of international anti corruption norms through non binding instruments and informal institutions has the potential to privilege the interests of powerful states in ways that raise questions about the normative legitimacy of these institutions and the instruments they produce At the same time the anti corruption instruments created under the auspices of these institutions also show that non binding instruments and informal institutions carry significant advantages The non binding instruments in the anti corruption field have demonstrated a capacity to influence domestic legal systems that is comparable to if not greater than that of binding treaties With corruption and money laundering at the forefront of political debate International Anti Corruption Norms provides timely expertise on how states and international institutions grapple with these global problems Breast Pathology, E-Book David J
