THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

Abstract

There is a lot of talk about the importance of having a good first impression. It's true, but it's not always what you think it is. A good first impression is not just about looking good. It's about making a good impression on the people you meet. It's about being friendly, helpful, and interesting. It's about being the person everyone wants to know.

NOTE: If the number on the average value card is changed, the number of times the value occurs is shown on the adjacent side of the column.
