Viswamohan, 2013-04-15 Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Politics of Global Reception and Awards is a critical handbook that focuses on trends in contemporary Indian novels and discusses the global reception of these works The volume provides a systematic approach to the study of Indian novelists that have not been with certain exceptions extensively examined Globalization in the Novels of Kiran Desai: A Study Ratna Hasanthi Dhavaleswarapu, 2022-09-07 Academic

Paper from the year 2022 in the subject American Studies Literature language English abstract Kiran Desai has created an indelible space for herself in Indian writings in English with the publication of her two novels Hullabaloo in the Guava Orchard and The Inheritance of Loss Hullabaloo in the Guava Orchard fetched for Desai the Betty Trask Award in 1998 while The Inheritance of Loss made her the youngest female recipient of the coveted Man Booker Prize in 2006 As a globalized citizen Desai has explored the ramifications of being a globalized citizen hip hopping countries and continents This study deals with globalization in both her novels Hullabaloo in the Guava Orchard and The Inheritance of Loss It shows the changes that have crept into India after thorough globalization of the world They show how Indians and Indian sensibilities have changed with globalization Globalization refers to an increase of globalism It refers to an increase in global relationships in socio economic technological and cultural domains It denotes the buildup of a new global order in political economic and cultural arenas Desai through her two novels Hullabaloo in the Guava Orchard and The Inheritance of Loss talks about the positive and negative aspects associated with globalization The novel Hullabaloo in the Guava Orchard presents the effects of globalization on Indian society and India as an economy The Inheritance of Loss depicts the effects of globalization on Indian society and Indian immigrants abroad Hinting at the advantages associated with globalization both the novels hint at the erasure of individual and cultural identity on account of globalization when locals in India or Indian immigrants abroad do not guard themselves against the negative aspects of globalization What are you Reading?

Pavithra Narayanan, 2014-03-21 This book offers a material critique on various aspects of Indian literary production and its reception by its audiences Taking a historical and contemporary lineage into account the author variously discusses the social political and economic factors that impact upon and determine choices in the publishing world Examining the constructions of the archive of postcolonial works by Indian writers in relation to nationalist histories language wars and the relationship between economic policies and literature the book forcefully argues that why we read what we read is more than coincidental Placing the rights of minoritized and disadvantaged communities at the heart of the analysis of India's decolonization and industrial projects the book attempts to address not just inequalities in the publishing world but also social inequities engendered by global capitalism Offering a critique of academics who act as cultural gatekeepers of intellectual production the book finally underscores the disconnect between the academic theory and practice of scholars of postcolonial studies who argue against inequality and marginalization while simultaneously supporting hegemonic academic practices This book will be of interest to scholars of development studies cultural studies literature postcolonial studies economics and those studying globalization as well as the interested lay reader
