

7 BODY LANGUAGE TIPS FOR YOUR INTERVIEWS

Sit up straight and have good posture - this shows that you're paying attention and are receptive to what's being said!

Smile - a warm, natural smile will make the interviewer feel more comfortable and help make you feel more at ease!

A good handshake - not so firm that you're crushing fingers, but not so limp it's like holding a wet fish!

Make eye contact - but not too much! This will help to convey confidence in yourself and shows your attentive when the interviewer is speaking!

Maintain your focus - non-verbal responses are a great way to show the interviewer they still have your attention - nodding, smiling etc. can show you're actively engaged!

Have a strong exit - smile, give them a firm handshake and thank them for their time. This is also the time to reiterate your interest in the position and hearing from them further!

Practice makes perfect - ask someone to run through a mock interview with you. Give them a list of things to look out for so you can improve for the real thing!
