Jim Dine Prints, 1970-1977 Jim Dine,1977 Catalogue of an exhibition held Oct 3 Nov 5 1976 at Williams College Museum of Art and at other places Graphicstudio National Gallery of Art (U.S.),Ruth Fine,Mary Lee Corlett,1991 Complete Printmaker John Ross,Claire Romano,Tim Ross,2009-12-01 This revised and expanded edition takes the reader step by step through the history and techniques of over forty five print making methods From the traditional etching engraving lithography and relief print processes to today's computer prints Mylar lithography copier prints water based screen printing helio reliefs and monotypes The Complete Printmaker covers various aspects of fine printmaking The book also includes a survey of issues and contemporary concerns in the printmakers world Birds Jim Dine, 2001 A childhood encounter with a crow at a zoo led to a lifetime fascination with avian life for the American artist Jim Dine This encounter with the bird was perceived by the young Dine with a mixture of fear fascination and a deeper understanding of his unconscious world and from it grew a mythic personal symbolism which he explores in Birds a series of remarkable black and white photographs Here an everyday unspectacular bird might appear to the beholder as a character of mythology as a jester at a Medieval court or as a strange messenger from a world behind the scenes These are rich intimate darkly detailed images imbued with symbolism and meaning They are also beautiful and compelling particularly as published in this spectacular volume which with 36 images printed using a technique called heliogravure and with a Japanese binding is a truly beautiful object in itself and reveals a new aspect of Dine's work
