Dare to Invent the Future Clapperton Chakanetsa Mavhunga, 2023-11-21 A rallying manifesto for the innovative problem solving we need to build a better more verdant and sustainable planetary existence Academics are letting Africa down With all that we know what do we have to show for it Whose lives have been changed for the better by it What have we done for and with our communities lately In this provocative book the first in a trilogy Clapperton Chakanetsa Mavhunga argues that our critical thinkers must become actual thinker doers Taking its title from one of Thomas Sankara's most inspirational speeches Dare to Invent the Future looks for moments in Africa's story where precedents of critical thought and knowledge in service of problem solving are evident to inspire readers to dare to invent such a knowledge system Mavhunga revisits insights from Edward Wilmot Blyden Booker T Washington Aimé Césaire Frantz Fanon Amílcar Cabral Julius Nyerere and Thomas Sankara to illustrate how the academic disciplines have been and could be deployed in the service of and through problem solving building on what people are doing and know At its core he writes knowledge in the service of and through problem solving derives from reading the past for new questions doing due diligence in the present and contriving an anticipatory approach toward the future Questioning the fundamental premises of Western and white knowledge production especially regarding science and technology Mavhunga proposes in this book refreshingly new approaches to thinking doing that stem from African realities in the hopes of inspiring a generation that will run toward not away from problems to solve them

Agricultural, Biosystems, and Biological Engineering Education Umezuruike Linus Opara, 2024-09-30 Agricultural engineering developed as an engineering discipline underpinned by physics applies scientific principles knowledge and technological innovations in the agricultural and food industries During the last century there was exponential growth in engineering developments which has improved human wellbeing and radically changed how humans interact with each other and our planet Among these Agricultural Mechanization is ranked among the top 10 in a list of 20 Top Engineering Achievements of the last century that have had the greatest impact on the quality of life While many success stories abound the problems of low appeal among students identity crises and limited job opportunities in many climates continue to trouble the discipline's future in many parts of the world. Yet agriculture and agricultural engineering remain fundamental to assuring food and nutrition security for a growing global population. Agricultural Biosystems and Biological Engineering Education provides the first comprehensive global review and synthesis of different agricultural biosystems and biological engineering education approaches including a detailed exposition of current practices from different regions. Key Features: Describes novel approaches to curriculum design and reform; Outlines current and emerging epistemology and pedagogies in ABBE education; Provides a framework to grow agricultural engineering in Africa and other developing regions; Highlights the role of ABBE education in the context of the SDGs. Presented in 3 parts and containing 42 chapters, this book covers the historical evolution of agricultural engineering education and discusses the emergence of biological and biosystems engineering education. It will appeal to engineers and other professionals, education planners and administrators and policy makers in agriculture and other biological industries. Chapters 4, 11, 19, 32 and 41 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) license.

Islamic Wealth Taxation and Financing Public Health Lyla Latif, 2023-11-25. Islamic Wealth Taxation and Financing Public Health is an eye-opening and thought-provoking book that boldly explores new possibilities for funding public health initiatives in countries where Islam isn't the predominant religion. In this case, Kenya serves as the focal point. Written by a Pan-African Muslim woman, this book is a must-read for anyone curious about innovative ways to improve public health without overburdening taxpayers. The author delves into the concept of zakat, an Islamic wealth tax, and investigates how it could be used as a source of revenue to boost public health in non-Islamic states like Kenya. By shedding light on the inner workings of the Kenyan legal system, the book highlights the importance of understanding local power dynamics, cultural and religious beliefs, and political structures when examining legal issues. It's a fascinating look at how different legal frameworks can come together to tackle complex challenges, which brings together insights from human rights law, Islamic law, and constitutional law, showcasing the potential for interdisciplinary collaboration in solving real-world problems. One of the reasons this book is so timely and important is its alignment with global development goals such as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the African Union Agenda 2063, and National Development Plans. These initiatives all emphasise the need for countries to find new local funding sources without overtaxing their citizens. Exploring zakat as a potential solution in Kenya is particularly interesting given the country's influence in East Africa and the potential impact of such a development in the region.

Couples Coping with Stress Mariana K. Falconier, Ashley K. Randall, Guy Bodenmann, 2016-05-12. This is the first book that reviews both empirical and clinical applications of how couples jointly cope with stress. Dyadic coping around the globe. The Systemic Transactional Stress Model (STM) developed by co-editor Guy Bodenmann is used as a consistent framework so readers can better appreciate the contrasts and similarities across the fourteen cultures represented in the book. Written by scholars from the particular culture each chapter provides a conceptual review of the dyadic coping research conducted in their specific cultures and also provides empirical and clinical recommendations Additional contributions include how to measure dyadic coping so others can apply the STM model in other contexts The latest treatment approaches for therapy and prevention are also highlighted making this book ideal for professionals interested in expanding their cultural competence when working with couples from various backgrounds Highlights include How couples in different cultures deal with stress and how values and traditions affect dyadic stress and coping Global applications especially to couples in the regions highlighted in the book the U S including one chapter on Latino couples in the U S Australia China Greece Hungary Italy Japan Kenya Nigeria Pakistan Portugal Romania and Switzerland Factors encountered in examining dyadic coping using the STM Model including measurement and assessment issues Suggestions for making treatment prevention and intervention programs for couples more effective Ideal for relationship researchers psychologists mental health counselors social workers and advanced students who work with couples dealing with stress This book is also appropriate for advanced courses on interpersonal processes close relationships stress and coping multicultural issues in marriage and family therapy or counseling or family systems taught in a variety of social science disciplines Trends and impacts of China's FDI in Kenya Winnie

Pathogenic and Symbiotic Bacteria in Ruminants: Antimicrobial Resistance and Microbial Homeostasis Yi Yang, Jilei Zhang, Heba Sayed El-Mahallawy, 2024-01-22 Ruminants have been domesticated for thousands of years living alongside and providing many benefits to human beings in various ways They provide food fiber power biomaterials and share in providing traditional medicine for people worldwide However bacterial infections do not only impact domestic and wild animals which may cause economic loss and health issues but also represent a great threat to the health of human beings Moreover due to the inadvertent use of antimicrobials especially in the treatment of bovine mastitis the resultant antimicrobial resistance is raising our concerns Meanwhile symbiotic bacteria play an important role in the ruminants who have a unique digestive system that allows them to better use energy from fibrous plant material than other herbivores Therefore all of these challenges urge researchers to pay more attention to the emergence and the molecular characterization of pathogenic multidrug resistant bacteria in addition to the gastroenterological microbiome dysbiosis in ruminants The purpose of this Research Topic is to highlight and stimulate discussions regarding the antimicrobial resistance and microbial homeostasis of pathogenic and symbiotic bacteria in ruminants and their products thereby helping us further understand the role of bacteria in the pathological and physiological processes of ruminants In addition more attention should be paid to low cost and effective antimicrobials alternatives for the prevention and or treatment of bacterial diseases in ruminants in order to reduce the potential threat to the health of human beings resulting from the overreliance on antimicrobial therapy
