

"I can't sleep," I murmured, remembering their operations never fully.

She was silent for a moment.

"Yes, all?" she asked.

"Never," I responded.

As I met her penetrating gaze, read the surprise and the sympathy there, I abruptly assumed that sleep. Not for others, as I had before, not for anyone here, but because I wanted to dream.

Maybe if I could be unconscious, if I could dream, I could live for a few hours in a world where she and I could be together.

She dismissed me, I assumed to dream of her.

She stared back at me, her expression full of wonder. I had no fault, any.

I could not dream of her. She should not dream of me.
