Economics and the Real World Joaquim Vergés, 2023-11-25. Economics should schematically explain the key elements and main strands of this core part of social life, the actual workings of our economies. This book argues that orthodox modern neoclassical economics does not fulfil this core task. Standard economic models do not address the real functioning of our market economies but rather an imagined economy. While a number of books have presented a critique of traditional economic models, this book also seeks to develop an alternative model of economics inferred from observational empirical evidence. The book will be of interest to economics students and researchers, to economists and particularly to universities and business schools teaching and researching non traditional and post crash economics.

International Business Success in a Strange Cultural Environment Mamarinta P. Mababaya, 2003. The book focuses on the cultural aspect of the author's published PhD thesis entitled The Role of Multinational Companies in the Middle East: The Case of Saudi Arabia, which he has carried out at the University of Westminster. It explores the success of multinational enterprises doing business in Saudi Arabia vis-à-vis their cultural awareness and responsiveness. The empirical findings discussed in this book reveal that international business success in a strange cultural environment depends partly on the ability of multinational managers to understand the local culture. The cultural subject in this book pertains to Islam in its entirety. The findings may seem strange to many readers who are not familiar with Islamic culture in its purest form. Many newcomers to Saudi Arabia, especially non-Muslim foreign investors, businessmen and workers, often find many things strange about the Kingdom, its people and cultural values. Some feel it odd that many Muslims give more importance to prayer than business Some are disappointed when they find commercial establishments like shopping centres closed as Muslim workers go to the mosques to attend to their daily prayers Business visitors find strange the fact that in the midst of their meetings with their Saudi or Muslim counterparts the latter excuse themselves for prayer They have these strange feelings due to their lack of understanding of true Islamic culture The cultural aspect of this book will help businessmen and concerned institutions worldwide gain understanding of Islam and reconcile their cultural differences with the Muslim world Through this book international companies will be able to have a better understanding of authentic Islamic culture which will help them gain greater competitive advantages in the Saudi marketplace Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 Distributive

Institutions Shouwen Zhang,2020-12-29 The crisis of distribution is one of the longest standing and most complicated issues facing human society Imbued with social political historic and cultural elements it varies significantly across different countries as a result of all these factors As an emerging economy which transferred from a planned to a market economy China has experienced large distribution gaps since it implemented the Reform and Opening up Policy in the early 1980s requiring stronger economic law to mitigate and regulate the crisis of distribution In this second volume the author analyses crises of distribution from a theoretical perspective and proposes law and policy solutions Believing that such crises are a collective result of systematic limitations the author proposes a theoretical framework of system distribution development in order to resolve distribution problems and promote economic development He argues that a crisis of distribution cannot be avoided without coordinated development of economic law and relevant constitutional civil and commercial law systems In addition it is necessary to differentiate the territories industries enterprises and individuals that constitute such diverse systems The book should be of keen interest to researchers and students of law economics and political science
