2. What sight becomes a "melancholy object" for Swift and others who walk through the towns and cities?
3. What will give the people reason to put up a statue for the "preserver of the nation?" What problem would he solve to attain such an honor? Quote the reason – this is key!

6. How many children are born into poor households annually (not including those who die within the first year)? Read carefully.
7. Why does the author say that a boy or girl before age 12 is not a "saleable commodity"? What does "saleable commodity" mean, and what does this tell you about the narrator?
8. SUMMARIZE the problem the narrator is describing.
9. Describe Swift's plan. You may read it and ask yourself if he is serious – that's the point! ☹ Just write what he proposes.
10. Who, does Swift say, this food will be "especially dear to"? Why? What have they already done? (Use the same verb he does in your answer!)
11. What does the following line mean, in context? "One male will be sufficient to serve four females." What quality is this helping to reveal in our narrator?
