DAILY NEWS TOP SCHOOLGIRLS LOST AND FOUND 28 September 2015

Written by: Nadine Murdock, in Durban

Yesterday two of Greenway Primary School's top Grade 4 schoolgirls were lost and later found by the SAPS.

Fifty Grade 4 learners from Greenway Primary School were taken on a school outing to the Durban Beach Front Amusement Park. The learners were taken on a special school outing for doing extremely well in their ANA examinations. Greenway's Principal, Mrs Shirley Ntuli, said that the two Grade 4 classes were taken on a school trip because they had improved their results in their ANA examinations. "Grade 4 A and B were the most improved classes in the school," said their proud principal. "Their marks went up from a low 36% in Grade 3 to a high score of 68% in Grade 4." The learners showed most improvement in the language examinations.

One of the Grade 4 teachers, Mr Keith Brown, said "I encouraged my class to work hard during the year and their marks are the result of hard work." "We had a campaign called read-a-book-a-week and I made sure that each child joined the library," said the other Grade 4 teacher, Mrs Elsie Myeza. "This helped them to pull up their language marks by nearly 20%," she said proudly.

As a reward for their improved marks, the Grade 4 learners were taken to the amusement park on the beach front. Unfortunately two girls, Nomusa Shabalala and Ann Smith, got lost. They were later found when they reported to a policewoman at the amusement park. Nomusa said, "I was scared in case the others had left on the bus." Ann said, shakily, "It was starting to get dark and we could not see so well." The girls had wandered off and could not find their group. After searching high and low, the two frightened girls saw a policewoman and asked her for help. "Many children get lost at the amusement park because they get so excited by the rides that they forget to stay with their teachers or parents. I contacted my colleagues and they located the Greenway School group, so we could return the girls to safety very quickly," said the efficient Constable Shool. The ANA examinations are held each year in August and learners in Grades 1 to 9 and 9 across South Africa write these examinations. The results show the Department of Education which parts of the curriculum are giving learners problems so that the department can strengthen the teaching and learning in these areas.
