

MY BEST FRIEND

A real friend is one who stands by his friend in the hour of his need person deserts his friend at a time when he needs him the most, he cannot be called a real friend if two persons simply know each other, and they can call friends. The real test of friendship is, therefore, not mere acquaintance but the will to render timely help to a friend in distress. It is indeed very difficult to find a true friend in this world.

Of course, there have been a few examples of true friendship in this world. Lord Krishna and Sudama were class-fellows. They had studied under same Guru. When they grew up, Lord Krishna became a king, but became a pauper. Once Sudama went to Lord Krishna to seek his help, Krishna welcomed his old friend with open arms. He sent out his men to a palatial house for Sudama and gave liberal financial assistance to his friend to overcome their poverty. Lord Krishna thus proved to be a real friend of Sudama.

Another classical example is that of the abiding friendship between Marx and Engels. Karl Marx was a great philosopher but very poor, where friend Engels was a rich mill-owner. The friendship between them was so solid that they wrote books together. Engels always helped his friend Marx money.

Nowadays true and faithful friends are very rare. All that glitters is gold. We should always distinguish between good and bad friends.

We should remember that only a person who is sincere and honest prove to be a good friend. A good friend is a source of happiness he not only our joys but also our sorrows.

A rich student can help his poor friend with money. If the poor friend is brilliant in studies, he can help his rich friend by helping him in his studies other words, each person should help the other with whatever one can. Friendship is a two-way traffic. It grows on mutual trust and help.

I am very fortunate that I have a real friend. He is Mr. Mohan Lai. He is my best friend. We have been studying together in the same school for ten years. He lives near my house. We spend most of our time together.

My friend belongs to a rich family. His father is the Manager and mother is also employed. She is a teacher in a Public School. They live in a bungalow. Though his parents are well off, they are not proud of their wealth. They are very God-fearing persons. They treat me as their own son. They love me very much.

My friend is a brilliant student. He always stands first in the class. We study together. He helps me in studying subjects in which I am weak so that I may catch up with him. I am not jealous of him. Rather, I am grateful to him for helping me in my studies.

Unfortunately, my friend was not very good in sports. But I am a very good player of cricket. I have, therefore, been coaching him in the game of cricket. He has learnt a lot about this game. By constant and regular practice under my guidance he has become a first class player of cricket. His health has also improved a lot. He is grateful to me for grooming him in the game of cricket.
