

THE BOOK OF JOB

OD AND SATAN MAKE
this crazy bet.

Satan claims that this guy Job only loves God because God gave him wealth, respect and a large and adoring family. So to prove Satan wrong, God allows Satan to kill off Job's wife and kids and strip him of his wealth through a series of disasters. To top it all off, Satan is allowed to give Job all kinds of sores and diseases. He even makes Job stink. His friends and neighbors begin to wonder if hanging around Job might not be bad luck, so they stop coming by his house.

Finally, when Job hits rock bottom, he curses the day he was born. But even lonely, beaten and forced to sit in a bucket of ash all day to ease his sores, Job does not lose faith in God. Satan concedes the bet and gives God the supernatural equivalent of a twenty-dollar bill or whatever it was they agreed upon as their wager. God then rewards Job for his faith by giving him more money, smarter kids and a hotter wife than he ever had before.

"Okay, you won on Job," Satan said. "But twenty bucks says that guy will totally flip you off."

"Who, that guy?" God asked.

"Care for a little bet to make things interesting?"
