Comprehensive Curriculum for Gifted Learners

Joyce VanTassel-Baska, 1994 Focuses on all the issues that teachers and administrators need to know about gifted learners

This text covers the process of curriculum development adaptation of traditional content areas and non traditional curriculum areas like thinking skills leadership and the arts and humanities Educator's Guide to Grants, The Dr. Linda Karges-Bone, 2011-09-01 Do you need funds for a pre school autism program Uniforms for the girls cross country team

Funding for a childhood obesity or literacy program Dollars to help teachers learn to use interactive white boards or travel for study abroad Empowering Teachers for Equitable and Sustainable Education Maria Teresa Tatto, 2024-04-16 This groundbreaking book uses a comprehensive study of a novel Master of Education program to showcase how teachers can be engaged in authoritative equity based research using comparative education theory inquiry based pedagogy and the

UNESCO SDGs as powerful frameworks By developing agency to advance culturally sustaining and humanizing practices it demonstrates how teachers can promote equity in their classrooms and communities The central premise of the program is that teachers must become comparative global and local action researchers to have agency in their practice and to become effective advocates for the cultural and learning needs of their students especially those in disadvantaged contexts or learning at the bottom of the pyramid By learning comparative framing and social science methods reviewing the literature to select verifiable educational research and developing and implementing a plan for action research this book offers new ideas for how teachers can effectively respond to recent UNESCO calls to reimagine and create promising futures locally By providing formative and summative evidence of culturally and socially transformative learning and showcasing how teacher educators can engage teachers in authoritative justice inquiry based research this book will appeal to scholars faculty and researchers of comparative education and teacher education and development , Teach Reading, Not Testing Liz Hollingworth, Hilleary M. Drake, 2012 Teaching IS rocket science and you are the pilot Teach Reading Not Testing reinforces what teachers already know test preparation worksheets and drill and kill activities do not make children into lifelong readers The authors conscientious approach to reading instruction combines an insider perspective on the development of high stakes tests with classroom experience in achieving successful reading outcomes at the elementary and secondary levels

Their research based methodology building on teachers expertise about best practice is based on five key components

Aligning instruction to the state or national core standards Using formative assessment Connecting units to real world contexts Motivating students effectively Holding on to best practice in literacy instruction Included are end of chapter quizzes and real life scenarios plus a full chapter on teaching literacy with special populations Readers will find helpful solutions for teaching children to love reading in the midst of the accountability movement and an approach to test preparation that doesn't require teachers to sacrifice everything they already know about teaching kids to read

Academic Assessment and Intervention Steven Little, Angeleque Akin-Little, 2014-01-21 Serving students with academic deficiencies necessitates communication and collaboration among professionals from several disciplines Academic Assessment and Intervention brings together divergent approaches in order to demonstrate that scientific evidence rather than biases or previous practice must determine assessment practices that are selected and used for particular purposes Similar to a handbook in its comprehensive topical coverage this edited collection provides a contextual foundation for academic assessment and intervention describes both norm referenced and curriculum based assessment measurement in detail considers the implications of both of these assessments on ethnically diverse populations provides a clear link between assessment evidence based interventions and the RTI model and considers other important topics related to this area such as teacher behavior Intended primarily for graduate level courses in education school psychology or child clinical psychology it will also be of interest to practicing professionals in these fields School Library Media Activities Monthly, 1998 Teacher Evaluation in Music Cara Faith Bernard, Joseph Michael

Abramo, 2019-01-04 Teacher Evaluation in Music A Guide for Music Teachers in the U S aims to help music teachers navigate the controversial terrain of teacher evaluation Rather than entering the debate on policy divorced from practice this book is intended as a pragmatic approach to help music teachers to thrive within teacher evaluation systems and as a way to improve practice Using Shulman's concept of content knowledge general pedagogical knowledge and pedagogical content knowledge this book strives to help music teachers find a balance between advocating for themselves and their programs and for using teacher evaluation to improve their teaching The book covers history of policy and law of teacher evaluation and the competing uses of teacher evaluation to rate teachers or as a professional development tool The descriptions of policies laws and competing uses are approached in a way to help music teachers use teacher evaluation for their benefit to grow as professionals This book has chapters devoted to giving detailed and specific strategies in key areas that research has suggested music teachers struggle to implement questioning literacy differentiated instruction and assessment Complimenting these key areas are sample lesson plans which apply the strategies of questioning differentiation literacy and assessment discussed in each chapter These lessons serve as a resource and guide for teachers to develop their own lessons and improve their practice The final chapter gives guidance on how music teachers may talk to administrators and evaluators to make teacher evaluation productive Through these detailed descriptions of understanding teacher evaluation talking to evaluators and improving practice music teachers may not just survive but thrive in these systems of accountability

Literate Lives Amy Seely Flint, 2007-11-09 Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms invites readers to consider the complexities of the reading process in diverse settings The text is designed to meet the challenges and needs of undergraduate and graduate teacher candidates in elementary education programs helping them to have a better first year in the classroom experience The text introduces teacher candidates to the notion that reading is a complex multi layered process that begins early in a child's life Reading by all accounts is more than decoding symbols on a page While this is one component of the reading process it is important for teacher candidates to see a broader more complete picture of reading Given the role that reading plays in the elementary school curriculum it is imperative that teachers have a well developed understanding of the reading process and what it means to be a teacher of readers Literate

Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in the Elementary Classroom covers the major theories and application strategies of the reading process as well as current debates in the field using a unique framework that builds upon the following themes believing that literacy is based in social cultural and historical contexts assuming an inquiry stance being problem posers and wondering why using kidwatching Goodman 1985 as an assessment tool to make informed instructional decisions recognizing and using the multiple literacies that children bring to the classroom lingering and reflecting on one s decisions in light of what one knows and believes      Literacy in Australia Amy Seely Flint,Mark Vicars,Amanda Muscat,Maria Bennet,Robyn Ewing,Kylie Shaw,Lisa Kervin,Jessica Mantei,Jeanne Iorio,Catherine Hamm,Mitchell Parker,Marcelle Cacciattolo,Lawry Mahon,Sarah Tartakover,2024-02-20 Infused with our authors personal experiences teaching Literacy in Australia 4th Edition is delivered as a full colour printed textbook with an interactive eBook code included With a prioritised focus on the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures featured throughout the text and a greater focus on using ICT in the classroom pre service teachers will be well equipped with the knowledge of what kinds of activities they can include in and out of the classroom for an enriching learning experience for their students      Reflections ,2007 Part of the History social science series created to follow the California standards and framework providing stories of the important people places geography and events which shaped the state of California and the country
