Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy,Robert Cameron,Ursula Hoadley,Vinothan Naidoo,2018-09-05

This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult. Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation. The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education. Using the vivid example of South Africa, a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy, it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes. By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals, it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re-orient the system towards learning.

Large Scale School Reform and Social Capital Building Ian R. Haslam, Myint Swe Khine, Issa M. Saleh, 2013-06-26 This book introduces and explores the nature of large scale reform and offers a fresh insight into the importance of social capital and professional development leadership for teachers and school management. It synthesizes research on the role of the professional development leader and the importance of social capital in schools and examines its potential to impact large scale system wide reform projects. The text presents a range of international examples and theories from renowned researchers and educationists which illustrate the challenge of raising the prominence of education social capital in schools. Considering crucial research that informs effective adult learning interventions, underlying themes supporting constructivist and transformative interventions are identified and woven into the narrative. Factors and variables needed to encourage and implement initiatives are examined and each section is accompanied by case studies from around the world. The book is split into five sections and twelve parts which include: The Lesson of Large Scale Reform for Leadership Development, Assessment of Wide Scale Educational Reform Initiatives, Developing Social Capital through National Education Reform, System Improvement through Professional Learning Communities. Large Scale School Reform and Social Capital Building will be of interest to policy makers and system reform leaders along with researchers and postgraduate students with a focus on continuous professional development, educational reform and school leadership.

Inclusive Teaching in South Africa Tsedis M. Makoelle, 2016-08-31 Inclusive education presupposes an all inclusive approach where all learners are taught in regular classrooms regardless of background, disability or social context. While there has been much debate, indications are that inclusive education has been gaining momentum. The book is divided into six coherent sections that address the how of inclusive education both inside and outside of the classroom.

Challenges and Issues facing the Education System in South Africa Wilfred Legotlo, 2014-05-05 The quality of education is pivotal for the production of human capital and this cannot be compromised by failing to refocus on the quality of education offered in schools. The inputs in the system such as trained and motivated teachers, buildings and classrooms including sanitation, clean water, instructional material such as textbooks as well as strong leadership with vision to steer the winds of change are important in providing the desired outcomes. The chapters in this volume are broadly divided into three subsections as follows learner related issues farm and rural schools poverty and schooling school violence and students rights teacher related issues teacher morale and motivation teachers for all schools management needs of school principals and administrative policy related issues inclusive education and school community relations The social demand for better schools effective principals qualified and committed teachers and better opportunities for all place a huge challenge to provinces and the state to protect the rights of all citizens This volume sets out the challenges facing the education system in South Africa such as poor school infrastructure poor learning conditions and a lack of learning materials and provides recommendations on how some of these can be overcome
