Military Weapons and Environment Wing Commander (Dr) Umesh Chandra Jha,2017-10-15 Armed conflicts have become more complicated with the emphasis shifting towards new weapons such as drones cybercrime and autonomous weapons In July 2017 the UN General Assembly adopted the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons This treaty prohibits a full range of nuclear weapon related activities such as undertaking to develop test produce manufacture acquire possess or stockpile nuclear weapons or other nuclear explosive devices as well as the use or threat of use of these weapons The ongoing conflicts have shown that the consequences of the use of explosive weapons are not limited to death physical injury and disability but also include long term impacts on mental well being The use of improvised weapons by States and non State actors is an area of concern for the environment Every State must therefore ensure that weapons used by their armed forces are explicitly adjudged under International Humanitarian Law IHL and Human Rights Law While reviewing a new weapon the States must adopt multilateral approaches drawing upon relevant legal health environmental and military expertise This book describes the environmental effects of eight weapons and explosive remnants of war that have caused extensive environmental harm in the recent past It also makes specific recommendations addressed to the international community and the States for protecting the natural environment from the impact of weapons of war This book will contribute towards a better understanding of the environmental harm caused by military weapons

British Columbia's Borders in Globalization Nicole Bates-Eamer,Helga Kristín Hallgrímsdóttir,2021-11-24 This book is a case study collection examining the influences and functions of British Columbia s BC borders in the 21st century British Columbia s Borders in Globalization examines bordering processes and the causes and effects of borders in the Cascadian region from the perspective of BC The chapters cover diverse topics including historical border disputes and cannabis culture and identity the governance of transboundary water flows migration and preclearance policies for goods and people and the emerging issue of online communities The case studies provide examples that highlight the simultaneous but contradictory trends regarding borders in BC while boundaries and bordering processes at the external borders shift away from the territorial boundary lines self determination local politics and cultural identities re inscribe internal boundaries and borders that are both virtual and real Moreover economic protectionism racial discourses and xenophobic narratives driven by advances in technology reinforce the territorial dimensions of borders These case studies contribute to the literature challenging the notion that territorial borders are sufficient for understanding how borders function in BC and in a few instances they illustrate the nuanced ways in which borders or bordering processes are becoming detached from territory The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies
