The company was a joint stock company, which means that it was owned by many people. The company was given a monopoly of trade with the East Indies. This meant that no other British company was allowed to trade with the East Indies. The company was very successful and it became one of the most powerful companies in the world. It was the first company to be listed on a stock exchange. The company was also the first to use the word ‘shareholder’ to describe its owners.
