The Harvest Festival Frederic Stanhope Hill, F. S. H., 1826 The Harvest Festival, with Other Poems, 1826 A History of Old Norse Poetry and Poetics Margaret Clunies Ross, 2005 This is the first book in English to deal with the twin subjects of Old Norse poetry and the various vernacular treatises on native poetry that were a conspicuous feature of medieval intellectual life in Iceland and the Orkneys from the mid twelfth to the fourteenth centuries Its aim is to give a clear description of the rich poetic tradition of early Scandinavia particularly in Iceland where it reached its zenith and to demonstrate the social contexts that favoured poetic composition from the oral societies of the early Viking Age in Norway and its colonies to the devout compositions of literate Christian clerics in fourteenth century Iceland The author analyses the two dominant poetic modes eddic and skaldic giving fresh examples of their various styles and subjects looks at the prose contexts in which most Old Norse poetry has been preserved and discusses problems of interpretation that arise because of the poetry's mode of transmission She is concerned throughout to link indigenous theory with practice beginning with the pre-Christian ideology of poets as favoured by the god dinn and concluding with the Christian notion that a plain style best conveys the poet's message Margaret Clunies Ross is McCaughey Professor of English Language and Early English Literature and Director of the Centre for Medieval Studies at the University of Sydney Specimens of American Poetry Samuel Kettell, 1829 Language and imagination in the Gawain poems J. J. Anderson, 2020-01-03 This major new literary study offers a fresh view of the significance of the famous group of fourteenth century poems Pearl Cleanness Patience and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight It is a comprehensive study which puts the poems themselves firmly at its centre though it is always alert to relevant aspects of their literary and cultural context John Anderson builds his discussions of the poems ideas on an examination of the anonymous poet's superb Shakespeare like language He finds that the great fourteenth century struggle between religious and secular forces for control of men's minds underlies all the poems This title is the first in the new Manchester Medieval Literature series which makes readability a priority Accordingly despite its wide range of reference and the radicalism of some of its leading ideas this book is written in a jargon free style designed to appeal to specialist non specialist and student readers alike Our Stunning Harvest Ellen Bass, 1985-01-01 Intended to encourage young people to take part in the dialogue about nuclear weapons and become active on nuclear issues this guide talks about nuclear weapons and what people can do to stop the threat of nuclear war There are two major sections The first section The Problem contains background readings on nuclear issues Discussed are how the nuclear arms race started why people think we need nuclear weapons for national security the cost of the arms race and arms control The second section What Can I Do discusses how to educate and organize others take part in marches rallies and demonstrations use voting power make government listen by lobbying writing and calling influence the media and improve self expression The appendices provide a chronology of U S USSR relations key dates in disarmament a sample press release a list of advocacy

Robert Bloomfield, Romanticism and the Poetry of Community Simon J. White, 2016-12-05 Robert Bloomfield whom John Clare described as the most original poet of the age was a widely read and critically acclaimed poet throughout the first decade of the nineteenth century and remained popular until the beginning of the twentieth century Yet until now no modern critic has undertaken a full length study of his poetry and its contexts Simon J White considers the relationship between Bloomfield s poetry and that of other Romantic poets For example her argues that Wordsworth s poetics of rural life was in some respects a response to Bloomfield s The Farmer s Boy White considers Bloomfield s emphasis on the importance of local tradition and community in the lives of labouring people In challenging the idea that the formal and rhetorical innovation of Wordsworth and Coleridge was principally responsible for the emergence of a new kind of poetry at the turn of the eighteenth century he also shows that it is impossible to understand how the lyric and the literary ballad evolved during the Romantic period without considering Bloomfield's poetry White's authoritative study demonstrates that on the contrary Bloomfield's poetry was pivotal in the development of Romanticism
