Hindu Monastic Life David M. Miller, Dorothy C. Wertz, 1976-01-01 Hindu Monastic Life David M. Miller (Ph.D.), Dorothy C. Wertz, 1996 Bhubaneswar Ravi Kalia, 1994 In this informative new book Ravi Kalia continues his examination of the planning of Indian cities begun with his earlier study of Chandigarh Here Kalia makes systematic inquiries into the political circumstances that brought about modern Bhubaneswar the capital of the state of Orissa to reveal the historical and social circumstances that shaped the city In this account Kalia brilliantly shows the interplay of indigenous religious forces regional loyalty and Western secular ideas in the context of twentieth century international architecture and planning movements This book will prove invaluable to historians architects planners sociologists and scholars interested in India as well as those interested in urban planning in developing countries Cora Du Bois Susan Christine Seymour, 2015 Although Cora Du Bois began her life in the early twentieth century as a lonely and awkward girl her intellect and curiosity propelled her into a remarkable life as an anthropologist and diplomat in the vanguard of social and academic change Du Bois studied with Franz Boas a founder of American anthropology and with some of his most eminent students Ruth Benedict Alfred Kroeber and Robert Lowie During World War II she served as a high ranking officer for the Office of Strategic Services as the only woman to head one of the OSS branches of intelligence Research and Analysis in Southeast Asia After the war she joined the State Department as chief of the Southeast Asia Branch of the Division of Research for the Far East She was also the first female full professor with tenure appointed at Harvard University and became president of the American Anthropological Association Du Bois worked to keep her public and private lives separate especially while facing the FBI's harassment as an opponent of U S engagements in Vietnam and as a liberal lesbian during the McCarthy era Susan C Seymour's biography weaves together Du Bois's personal and professional lives to illustrate this exceptional first woman and the complexities of the twentieth century that she both experienced and influenced The Hindu Monastery in South India Nalini Rao, 2020-09-21 Drawing on both textual and archaeological evidence this study offers an integrated approach to scholarly debates on monasteries and guru relics in South India between the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries This study analyzes the role of the guru in the development of Hindu monastic orders from centers of education to institutions of traditional authority Focusing on the complex socio religious context of the whole body icon the author analyzes the relic as a nexus of contradictions surrounding sacredness and death Religious Studies and Comparative Methodology Arvind Sharma, 2006-06-01 A contribution to the methodology of religious studies this work discusses using comparison to provide mutual illumination among religious traditions while avoiding the problem of assimilating one tradition to another Ascetic Culture , 2021-12-06 The collection of papers in Ascetic Culture Renunciation and Worldly Engagement was entirely conceived and developed by K Ishwaran who died in June 1998 The original concept was to focus on Tradition and Innovation in Monastic Life in South Asia a topic which combined two of Ishwaran's major interests

comparative studies of the monastic systems of south Asia and criticism of Western anthropological and sociological assumptions of tradition and modernity being antithetical especially with regard to traditional religions Ishwaran saw this collection of papers as reinforcing the demise of universalistic projects all encompassing grand master narratives and similar globally integrative theoretical or empirical enterprises in social discourse flowing from the post structural and post modernist revolutions in the social sciences Later he conceived of broadening this topic to be more liberally comparative to include major religious traditions around the world The new title was to be Tradition and Modernity in Monastic orders in Contemporary Societies Finally he broadened the theme to the present title of his collection Taken together the articles appearing in this book strongly support Ishwaran s theses First is the obvious point that eremitism and asceticism are far more complex than commonly understood in the scholarly world If ever a general understanding of these interrelated phenomena is developed careful examination not only how they are found in these cultures and traditions but also study of their particular manifestations in individual movements places cultures social groups etc must take place The second thesis is clearly established by the range of these papers ascetic traditions are not only inimical to modernity they may be found at the heart of certain contemporary social and cultural developments K Ishwaran has rendered the study of religion in particular and the social sciences in general an important service with this anthology Contributors are John E Cort Alan Davies Balkrishna G Gokhale Daniel Gold Shaman Hatley Sohail Inayatullah Klaus K Klostermaier David Miller S A Nigosian Jordan Paper and Earle H Waugh

When a Goddess Dies Orianne Aymard, 2014-05-01 Ma Anandamayi is generally regarded as the most important Hindu woman saint of the twentieth century Venerated alternately as a guru and as an incarnation of God on earth Ma had hundreds of thousands of devotees Through the creation of a religious movement and a vast network of ashrams unprecedented for a woman Ma presented herself as an authority figure in a society where female gurus were not often recognized Because of her widespread influence Ma is one of the rare Hindu saints whose cult has outlived her Today her tomb is a place of veneration for those who knew her as well as new generations of her followers By performing extensive fieldwork among Ma s current devotees Orianne Aymard examines what happens to a cult after the death of its leader Does it decline stagnate or grow Or is it rather transformed into something else entirely Aymard s work sheds new light not only on Hindu sainthood and particularly female Hindu sainthood but on the nature of charismatic religious leadership and devotion

a rama system is primarily a theological construct and that the system and its history should be carefully distinguished from the socio religious institutions comprehended by the system and from their respective histories Hindus Julius Lipner,1998

Hinduism has been a major religious faith for well over 3000 years and Hindus today account for over 600 million people

James Lochtefeld,2010-01-27 This book examines how sacred meaning is created reinforced and maintained in Hardwar an important Hindu pilgrimage site tirtha Hardwar s religious identity is inextricably tied to the river Ganges Its sacred narratives present its identity as fixed and unchanging ignoring mundane factors such as economic social or technological change Hindu and Christian in South-East India Geoffrey Oddie,2013-12-16 First Published in 1995 The purpose of this study is to examine religious institutions trends and developments in two adjoining districts thereby adopting a level of focus which falls somewhere between these two extremes of the broadly based overview and the detailed localized investigation of single religious establishments or movements It has also provided scope for comparison and a degree of generalization Female Ascetics Wendy Sinclair-Brull,2013-12-16 This book examines in rich detail the neglected topic of female ascetics Based on field research it documents the social forces which facilitated the establishment of an Order of Ascetics for women defying tradition in many respects It describes the subtle methods by which the individual is transformed into a full member of the Order and how hierarchy and purity are indeed integral to the process Women in Ochre Robes

Meena Khandelwal,2012-02-01 Meena Khandelwal offers an engaging and intimate portrait of extraordinary Hindu women in India who wear ochre robes signifying their renunciation of marriage and family for lives of celibacy asceticism and spiritual discipline While the largely male Hindu ascetic tradition of sannyasa renders its initiates ritually dead to their previous identities the women portrayed here are very much alive They struggle with and joke about the tensions and ironies of living in the world while trying not to be of it Khandelwal juxtaposes the common refrain that in renunciation there is no male and female with arguments that underscore the importance of gender In exploring these apparent contradictions she brings together worldly and otherworldly values within renunciation and argues that these create tensions that are at once emotional social and philosophical Female Ascetics in Hinduism Lynn Teskey Denton,2012-02-01 Female Ascetics in Hinduism provides a vivid account of the lives of women renouncers women who renounce the world to live ascetic spiritual lives in India The author approaches the study of female asceticism by focusing on features of two dharmas two religiously defined ways of life that of woman as householder and that of the ascetic who for various reasons falls outside the realm of householdership The result of fieldwork conducted in Varanasi Benares the book explores renouncers social and personal backgrounds their institutions and their ways of life Offering a first hand look at and an insightful analysis of this little known world this highly readable book will be indispensable to those interested in female asceticism in the Hindu tradition and women s spiritual lives around the world
