authors build on previous work further developing the sociology of human rights as a distinct field at the intersection of Social Sciences and International Law They take on several provocative theoretical debates such as those over connections between racism and capitalism the existence of a global or transnational police state the control growth and exploitation of migrants migration and the complex relationship between political repression and various forms of domination Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival offers critical analysis of contemporary politics and options for students scholars organizers and stakeholders to grapple with some of the most pressing social problems of human history
