Teaching History in the Era of Globalization: Epistemological and Methodological Challenges Cosme J. Gómez Carrasco, Pilar Rivero, Álvaro Chaparro-Sainz, 2022-10-20 Narrating the Soviet Era in Russian School History Textbooks Olga Konkka, 2025-09-03 This study focuses on how Russian history textbooks published between 1992 and 2021 dealt with the topic of the Soviet period 1917-1991. Representations of this part of Russia's past in school manuals have provoked vivid debates and bolstered government intervention in the field while a gradual shift towards a less critical narrative of the USSR in more recent textbooks is often presented as directed by Vladimir Putin. This study combines research into these texts and inquiry into those who write, publish, approve or criticize them. Bringing together these perspectives provides a more complex view of school textbooks as final products of both top-down and bottom-up processes. This volume is aimed at postgraduate researchers and academics specializing in Soviet history, contemporary Russian politics and society, and history education and textbooks.

The Palgrave Handbook of History and Social Studies Education Christopher W. Berg, Theodore M. Christou, 2020-04-03 This Handbook presents an international collection of essays examining history education past and present. Framing recent curriculum reforms in Canada and in the United States in light of a century-long debate between the relationship between theory and practice, this collection contextualizes the debate by exploring the evolution of history and social studies education within their state or national contexts. With contributions ranging from Canada, Finland, New Zealand, Sweden, the Netherlands, the Republic of South Africa, the United Kingdom, and the United States, chapters illuminate the ways in which curriculum theorists and academic researchers are working with curriculum developers and educators to translate and refine notions of historical thinking or inquiry as well as pedagogical practice.

The Cold War in the Classroom Barbara Christophe, Peter Gautschi, Robert Thorp, 2019-10-23 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. This book explores how the socially disputed period of the Cold War is remembered in today's history classroom. Applying a diverse set of methodological strategies, the authors map the dividing lines in and between memory cultures across the globe, paying special attention to the impact the crisis-driven age of our present has on images of the past. Authors analysing educational media point to ambivalence, vagueness, and contradictions in textbook narratives understood to be echoes of societal and academic controversies. Others focus on teachers and the history classroom, showing how unresolved political issues create tensions in history education. They render visible how teachers struggle to handle these challenges by pretending that what they do is just history. The contributions to this book unveil how teachers background the political inherent in all memory practices, often nourish the illusion that the history in which they are engaged is all about addressing the past with a reflexive and disciplined approach.

Developing Historical Thinkers Bruce A. Lesh, 2023 Learn how to engage students in investigating the past. Lesh provides research-based guidance to help teachers grades 6-12 develop and use questions that guide historical inquiry, align assessment to inquiry, and incorporate difficult histories. Each chapter uses a specific lesson framed by student work to illuminate approaches in real classroom scenarios HISTORY GEOGRAPHY

Women's Lives around the World Susan M. Shaw, Nancy Staton Barbour, Patti Duncan Ph.D., Kryn Freehling-Burton Ph.D., Jane Nichols, 2018-01-04 Providing an in depth look at the lives of women and girls in approximately 150 countries this multivolume reference set offers readers transnational and postcolonial analysis of the many issues that are critical to the success of women and girls. For millennia women around the world have shouldered the responsibility of caring for their families. But in recent decades women have emerged as a major part of the global workforce balancing careers and family life. How did this change happen? And how are societies in developing countries responding and adapting to women's newer roles in society? This four-volume encyclopedia examines the lives of women around the world with coverage that includes the education of girls and teens, the key roles women play in their families, careers, religions, and cultures, how issues for women intersect with colonialism, transnationalism, feminism, and established norms of power and control. Organized geographically, each volume presents detailed entries about the lives of women in particular countries. Additionally, each volume offers sidebars that spotlight topics related to women and girls in specific regions or focus on individual women's lives and contributions. Primary source documents include sections of countries' constitutions that are relevant to women and girls, United Nations resolutions and national resolutions regarding women and girls, and religious statements and proclamations about women and girls. The organization of the set enables readers to take an in-depth look at individual countries as well as to make comparisons across countries.

The Oxford Handbook of Feminism and Music Education Marissa Silverman, Professor of Music and Coordinator of Music Education, Marissa Silverman, Associate Professor of Music Education, Faculty of Music, University of Toronto, Associate Dean Nasim Niknafs, Nasim Niknafs, 2025. The Oxford Handbook of Feminism and Music Education brings together a wide range of international philosophical and qualitative scholars practicing music, teachers, educators, policymakers, and community musicians to conceptualize, analyze, and critique the multifaceted practices and problems in music education through feminist perspectives. Education Reform and Internationalisation David Bridges, 2014-08-28. This collection presents new investigations into the role of heritage languages and the correlation between culture and language from a pedagogic and cosmopolitical point of view. OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education Romania 2017 Kitchen Hannah, Fordham Elizabeth, Henderson Kirsteen, Looney Anne, Maghnouj Soumaya, 2017-05-03. Romania's education system has made impressive strides over the past two decades with an increasing share of students mastering the basic competencies that they need for life and work. But these average improvements mask significant disparities in learning outcomes and attainment with an International Handbook on Education in Southeast Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco, Martin Hayden, 2021-12-23. This International Handbook provides a detailed account of the education systems of 11 Southeast Asian nations including Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor-Leste, and Vietnam. It presents a systematic sector-by-sector explanation of how these national education systems deliver educational services and respond to national and international issues and challenges. With 56 chapters, the International Handbook is the region's most comprehensive educational reference source. In the first of its chapters, the editors introduce the regional context and draw attention to the distinctive characteristics of each of the 11 systems Southeast Asia representing 8.5% of the world's population is as dynamic as it is diverse The International Handbook charts progress and establishes a benchmark for documenting future developments It also provides a stepping off point for more detailed investigations of decision making processes and outcomes across the 11 national education systems Utah Code Annotated 1953 Utah, 1953 The Politics of Memory in Poland and Ukraine Tomasz Stryjek, Joanna Konieczna-Salamatin, 2021-09-30 Bringing together the work of sociologists, historians and political scientists this book explores the increasing importance of the politics of memory in central and eastern European states since the end of communism with a particular focus on relations between Ukraine and Poland Through studies of the representation of the past and the creation of memory in education, mass media and on a local level it examines the responses of Polish and Ukrainian authorities and public institutions to questions surrounding historical issues between the two nations At a time of growing renationalization in domestic politics in the region brought about by challenges connected with migration and fear of Russian military activity this volume asks whether international cooperation and the stability of democracy are under threat An exploration of the changes in national historical culture The Politics of Memory in Poland and Ukraine will appeal to scholars with interests in memory studies, national identity and the implications of memory making for contemporary relations between states The Civic Mission of Museums Anthony

Pennay, 2020-12-15 Museums have long sought to maintain relevance in the daily lives of their communities Over the past several decades museums have shifted as a field from a focus on collections to a focus on connecting with audiences More recently museums must confront political polarization and a decreasing sense of trust in nearly every public institution As a result few institutions are better positioned to serve the country than museums In fact polls show that museums rank among the most trusted institutions in the country regardless of political belief During tumultuous times this trust means that museums have a unique and important responsibility to fulfill their civic mission A century ago John Cotton Dana argued that the most important thing a museum can do is produce a public benefit The Civic Mission of Museums argues that museums play an essential role in the cultivation of engaged and informed citizens The book outlines a spectrum of civic learning that includes civic knowledge, civic mindset, civic skillset and civic action It offers concrete examples of impactful civic programming, exhibits and public engagement from a diverse set of museums It ends with a practical toolkit gleaned from across the country for museum professionals to utilize Civics and Citizenship Benilde García-Cabrero, Andrés
