1. This test consists of 60 items. You will have 1 hour and 15 minutes to answer them.
2. In addition to this test booklet, you should have an answer sheet.
3. Each item in this test has four suggested answers lettered (A), (B), (C), (D). Read each item you are about to answer and decide which choice is best.
4. On your answer sheet, find the number which corresponds to your item and shade the space having the same letter as the answer you have chosen.

Sample Item

Which of the following was used by early navigators to determine the position of the ship in relation to the stars?

- (A) A map
(B) A compass
(C) A lodestone
(D) An astrolabe

Sample Answer

The best answer to this item is "An astrolabe", so (D) has been shaded.

5. If you want to change your answer, erase it completely before you fill in your new choice.
6. When you are told to begin, turn the page and work as quickly and as carefully as you can. If you cannot answer an item, go on to the next one. You may return to that item later.

DO NOT TURN THIS PAGE UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

History Perparatary Paper 1 2014:

A Modern Legal History of Treasure N.M. Dawson, 2023-04-06 This book examines treasure law and practice from the rise of the new science of archaeology in the early Victorian period to the present day Drawing on largely unexamined state records and other archives the book covers several legal jurisdictions England and Wales Scotland Ireland pre and post independence and post partition Northern Ireland From the Mold gold cape 1833 to the Broughton hoard 1896 from Sutton Hoo 1939 to the Galloway hoard 2014 the law of treasure trove and the Treasure Act 1996 are considered through the prism of notable archaeological discoveries and from the perspectives of finders landowners archaeologists museum professionals collectors the state and the public Literally and metaphorically treasure law is revealed as a ground breaking chapter in the history of the legal protection of cultural property and cultural heritage in Britain and Ireland The Philosophy Chamber Ethan W. Lasser, 2017-01-01 This publication accompanies the exhibition The Philosophy Chamber Art and Science in Harvard's Teaching Cabinet 1766 1820 on view at the Harvard Art Museums Cambridge Massachusetts from May 19 through December 31 2017 and at The Hunterian University of Glasgow Scotland in 2018 Transnationalism, Gender and the History of Education Deirdre Raftery, Marie Clarke, 2018-10-03 In the past decade historians have begun to make use of the optic of transnationalism a perspective used traditionally by social anthropologists and sociologists in their study of the movement and flow of ideas between continents and countries Historical scholarship has adopted this tool and in this book historians of education use it to add nuance and depth to research on gender and education and particularly to the education experiences of women and girls The book brings together a group of internationally regarded scholars who are doing important research on transnationalism and the social construction of gender with particular reference to education environments such as schools and colleges The book is therefore very much at the cutting edge of theoretical and methodological advances in the history of education This book was originally published as a special issue of the History of Education Towards a Revival of Analytical Philosophy of History Krzysztof Brzechczyn, 2017-11-06 Towards a Revival of Analytical Philosophy of History Around Paul A Roth's Vision of Historical Sciences presents the state of the art in the philosophy of history The purpose of this book is to discuss the revival of analytical philosophy of history proposed by Paul A Roth a world known analytical philosopher of the social sciences and the humanities The first four papers outline the reasons for the decline of philosophy of history its present phase of development and its possible future The other authors discuss important questions of this field of research including the ontological status of the past the epistemological assumptions of historical research the explanatory dimensions of the narrative In the last group of papers the authors apply some of Roth's theoretical ideas within their own fields of research Contributors are Krzysztof Brzechczyn Nancy D Campbell Serge Grigoriev G za K lly Piotr Kowalewski Jouni Matti Kuukkanen Chris Lorenz Herman Paul Dawid Rogacz Paul A Roth Laura Stark Stephen Turner Rafa Pawe Wierchos awski and Eugen Zele k History of Early, Small and Other U.S.

A Cultural History of Objects in the Renaissance James Symonds, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Objects in the Renaissance covers the period 1400 to 1600 The Renaissance was a cultural movement a time of re awakening when classical knowledge was rediscovered leading to an efflorescence in philosophy art and literature The period fostered an emerging sense of individualism across European cultures This sense was expressed through a fascination with materiality and the natural world and a growing attachment to things The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Objects examines how objects have been created used interpreted and set loose in the world over the last 2500 years Over this time the West has developed particular attitudes to the material world at the centre of which is the idea of the object The themes covered in each volume are objecthood technology economic objects everyday objects art architecture bodily objects object worlds James Symonds is Professor at the University of Amsterdam The Netherlands Volume 3 in the Cultural History of Objects set General Editors Dan Hicks and William Whyte

The Presumption of Innocence in International Human Rights and Criminal Law Michelle Coleman, 2021-03-03 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the presumption of innocence from both a practical and theoretical point of view Throughout the book a framework for the presumption of innocence is developed The book approaches the right to presumption of innocence from an international human rights perspective using specific examples drawn from international criminal law The result is a framework for understanding the right that is grounded in human rights law This framework can then be applied across different national and international systems When applied it can help determine when the presumption of innocence is being infringed upon eroded violated and ensure that the presumption of innocence is protected The book is an essential resource for students academics and practitioners working in the areas of human rights criminal law international criminal law and evidence The themes also have a more general application to national jurisdictions and legal theory

Linnaeus, Natural History and the Circulation of Knowledge Hanna Hodacs, Kenneth Nyberg, Stéphane van Damme, 2018 The name of Carl Linnaeus 1707 1778 is inscribed in almost every flora and fauna published from the mid eighteenth century onwards in this respect he is virtually immortal In this book a group of specialists argue for the need to re centre Linnaean science and de centre Linnaeus the man by exploring the ideas practices and people connected to his taxonomic innovations Contributors examine the various techniques materials and methods that originated within the Linnaean workshop paper technologies publication strategies and markets for specimens Fresh analyses of the reception of Linnaeus's work in Paris K nigsberg Edinburgh and beyond offer a window on the local contexts of knowledge transfer including new perspectives on the history of anthropology and stadial theory The global implications and negotiated nature of these intellectual social and material developments are further investigated in chapters tracing the experiences and encounters of Linnaean travellers in Africa Latin America and South Asia Through focusing on the circulation of Linnaean knowledge and placing it within the context of eighteenth century globalization authors provide innovative and important contributions to our understanding of the early modern history of science The Schenley Experiment Jake Oresick,2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh s first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace s reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America s oldest public schools The Human Rights Breakthrough of the 1970s Sara Lorenzini,Umberto Tulli,Ilaria Zamburlini,2021-12-16 During the 1970s human rights took the front stage in international relations fuelling political debates social activism and a reconceptualising of both East West and North South relations Nowhere was the debate on human rights more intense than in Western Europe where human rights discourses intertwined the Cold War and the European Convention on Human Rights the legacies of European empires and the construction of national welfare systems Over time the European Community EC began incorporating human rights into its international activity with the ambitious political will to prove that the Community was a global civilian power This book brings together the growing scholarship on human rights during the 1970s the history of European integration and the study of Western European supranational cooperation Examining the role of human rights in EC activities in Latin America Africa the Mediterranean Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union The Human Rights Breakthrough of the 1970s seeks to verify whether a specifically European approach to human rights existed and asks whether there was a distinctive European voice in the human rights surge of the 1970s South Korea's Grand Strategy Ramon Pacheco

Pardo,2023-10-10 Since the end of the Cold War South Korea has taken on a greater role in global affairs Ramon Pacheco Pardo provides a groundbreaking analysis of South Korea s foreign policy from its transition to democracy in the late 1980s through the present day arguing that the country s approach to the world constitutes a grand strategy This book examines the key factors and goals that shape South Korea s long term strategy with analysis that brings together its diplomatic military economic and soft power components Pacheco Pardo shows that South Korea s fundamental aim has been to move beyond its past as a shrimp among whales and instead attain autonomy and freedom of action He explores how South Korean leaders across parties and governments have pursued security prosperity and status Pacheco Pardo tracks South Korea s core relationships with North Korea the United States and China and he details the country s objectives and policies across East Asia the Asia Pacific region and the rest of the world Drawing on in depth interviews with past and present policy makers this book presents an analytical account of how South Korean strategy is made and practiced It expertly lays out South Korea s grand strategy and more broadly makes a compelling case that middle powers like South Korea can implement grand strategies

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar,Olusegun Morakinyo,2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring
