The Politics of Magic Qinna Shen, 2015-06-15 Shen's study will be significant reading for teachers and students of folklore studies and for scholars of German Eastern European cultural film media and gender studies

Man the Hunted Donna Hart, 2018-04-17 Man the Hunted argues that primates including the earliest members of the human family have evolved as the prey of any number of predators including wild cats and dogs hyenas snakes crocodiles and even birds The authors studies of predators on monkeys and apes are supplemented here with the observations of naturalists in the field and revealing interpretations of the fossil record Eyewitness accounts of the man the hunted drama being played out even now give vivid evidence of its prehistoric significance This provocative view of human evolution suggests that countless adaptations that have allowed our species to survive from larger brains to speech stem from a considerably more vulnerable position on the food chain than we might like to imagine The myth of early humans as fearless hunters dominating the earth obscures our origins as just one of many species that had to be cautious depend on other group members communicate danger and come to terms with being merely one cog in the complex cycle of life

Phallic Panic Barbara Creed, 2005 Phallic Panic is not only an impressive and elegant work of scholarship it breathes new life into debates around the horror film illuminating the genre's eerie and unsettling power Like her groundbreaking The Monstrous Feminine Creed's new book is destined to become a standard text in the field Pam Cook Professor of European Film and Media University of Southampton Barbara Creed asks the question what does man want and takes us on an exhilarating trip through the Freudian uncanny and horror cinema to provide the answers This is a lucid and compelling account of male monstrosity which exhumes the uncanny and makes it come to life all over again as something primal perverse and chillingly subversive Ken Gelder author of Reading The Vampire and The Horror Reader Vampires werewolves cannibals and slashers why do audiences find monsters in movies so terrifying In Phallic Panic Barbara Creed ranges widely across film literature and myth throwing new light on this haunted territory Looking at classic horror films such as Frankenstein The Shining and Jack the Ripper Creed provocatively questions the anxieties fears and the subversive thrills behind some of the most celebrated monsters This follow up to her influential book The Monstrous Feminine is an important and enjoyable read for scholars and students of film cultural studies psychoanalysis and the visual arts
