Interpreting Ethiopia Observations Of Five Decades:

Interpreting Ethiopia Donald N. Levine, 2014-11-19 About the Book In this remarkable collection internationally renowned Ethiopianist Donald Levine has assembled interpretive vignettes some never before published spanning more than half a century Thanks to his unique experiences living among peasants of Northern Shoa visiting historic monasteries and enjoying personal connections with modernizing Ethiopians from all political viewpoints these essays offer acute glimpses into everything from local life worlds to historic perspectives spanning two millennia Catching diverse ways in which Ethiopians construct their own narratives is one of the distinctive features of this work This includes stunning interpretations of Ethiopia's national epic Kibre Negest different ways in which Oromos construct their own narratives and the clash of perspectives among protagonists in the 2005 political crisis between the ruling party and the main opposition party at that time The book also includes important political documents such as Levine's first hand account of the December 1960 coup his 1976 testimony for the U S Senate Subcommittee on Africa concerning the Derg and his thoughtful plea regarding the 1993 Eritrean referendum The book climaxes with broad interpretive sketches including the renowned essay on Ethiopia and Japan in comparative civilizational perspective and Levine's revised interpretation of the evolution of Ethiopia as a historic multi ethnic society In addition to historic and cultural forays Interpreting Ethiopia includes a number of chapters devoted to current domestic challenges such as the problem of chronic hunger and overpopulation the problems posed by the exponential growth of an Ethiopian Diaspora after 1974 and the obstacles and opportunities faced by Ethiopians in their effort to create a national public space and Gold Tradition and Innovation in Ethiopian Culture 1965 now reprinted by Tsehai Publishers and Greater Ethiopia The Evolution of a Multiethnic Society 1974 a second edition of which with a new preface was published in 2001 Translating Ethiopia Renato Tomei, 2019-01-17 The book represents the first in a series on travel writing translation tourism and advertising It spans biblical narratives religious missions scientific explorations and the lesser known travels in Ethiopia Prester John Queen of Sheba the Ark of the Covenant the Blue Nile Maq dala Lalibela and Gondar In particular stemming from the cultural turn in translation studies and geography this work adopts a comparative and diachronic perspective on colonial and postcolonial descriptions of space and place examining the variation in intertextual citation and re writing from early accounts to contemporary travelogues marking a persistence in stereotyping The Other Abyssinians Brian J. Yates, 2020 Reframes the story of modern Ethiopia around the contributions of the Oromo people and the culturally fluid union of communities that shaped the nation's politics and society The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy Fantu Cheru, Christopher Cramer, Arkebe Oqubay, 2019-01-10 From a war torn and famine plagued country at the beginning of the 1990s Ethiopia is today emerging as one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Growth in Ethiopia has surpassed that of every other sub Saharan country over the past decade and is forecast by the International Monetary Fund to exceed 8 percent over the next two years The government has set its eyes on transforming the country into a middle income country by 2025 and into a leading manufacturing hub in Africa The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy studies this country's unique model of development where the state plays a central role and where a successful industrialization drive has challenged the long held erroneous assumption that industrial policy will never work in poor African countries While much of the volume is focused on post 1991 economic development policy and strategy the analysis is set against the background of the long history of Ethiopia and more specifically on the Imperial period that ended in 1974 the socialist development experiment of the Derg regime between 1974 and 1991 and the policies and strategies of the current EPRDF government that assumed power in 1991 Including a range of contributions from both academic and professional standpoints this volume is a key reference work on the economy of Ethiopia Popular Ethiopian Cinema Michael W. Thomas, 2022-09-08 This book shines much needed light on the history structures and films of the Amharic film industry in Ethiopia Focusing on the rise of the industry from 2002 until today and embedded in archival ethnographic and textual research methods this book offers a sustained and detailed appreciation of Amharic language cinema Michael Thomas considers fiker love as an organising principle in national Ethiopian culture and by extension Amharic cinema Placing fiker as central to understanding Amharic film genres also illuminates the continuous negotiations at play between romantic familial patriotic and spiritual notions of love in these films Thomas considers the production and exhibition of films in Ethiopia charting fluctuations and continuities between the past and the present Having done so he offers detailed textual readings of films identifying important junctures in the industry's development and the emergence of new genres The findings of the book detail the affective characteristics that delineate most Amharic genres and the role culturally specific concepts such as fiker play in maintaining the relevance of commercial cinemas reliant on domestic audiences Bonhoeffer's New Beginning Andrew D. DeCort, 2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer's New Beginning investigates Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life affirming answer to how we begin again after devastation Combining scholarly rigor and existential honesty DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer offers an ethical and moral vision of radical hope vis vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation What Does Theology Do, Actually? Matthew Ryan Robinson, Inja Inderst, 2022-07-26 What Does Theology Do Actually Observing Theology and the Transcultural is to be the first in a series of 5 books each presented under the same question What Does Theology Do Actually with vols 2-5 focusing on one of the theological subdisciplines This first volume proceeds from the observation of a need for a highly inflected trans cultural and not simply inter cultural set of perspectives in theological work and training The revolution brought about across the humanities disciplines through globalization and the recognition of multiple modernities has introduced a diversity of overlapping cultural content and multiple cultural and religious belongings not only into academic work in the humanities and social sciences but into the Christian churches as well Peace Not War: Traditions of Restorative Justice in Imperial Ethiopia, 1769 - 1960 Charles Schaefer, 2025-05-27 Examines one of the few documented early examples of restorative justice from Africa or Latin America With a writing system Ethiopian emperors as well as pretenders to the throne chronicled their exploits including peace building feats and this book showcases and analyses historically verified instances from as early as 1769 where restorative justice modalities were used to resolve conflict and bring peace to the country Peace not War traces Ethiopia's evolving understanding of restorative justice from the forgive and forget approach which characterized the Zemene Mesafint Era of the Princes where perpetrators were exonerated allowing them to recoup and build their armies to fight another day to conditional forgiveness recorded by the imperial court and dependent on atonement Ethiopia's long history of experimentation with different forms of restorative justice demonstrates ingenuity flexibility and adaptability but as the twentieth century progressed workable indigenous forms of restorative justice were sidelined by Western codified law that emphasized retribution A Tributary Model of State Formation Berhanu Abegaz, 2018-06-09 A Tributary Model of State Formation Ethiopia 1600-2015 addresses the perplexing question of why a pedigreed Ethiopian state failed to transform itself into a nation state Using a comparative institutionalist framework this book explores why Ethiopia an Afroasian civilizational state has yet to build a modern political order comprising a sturdy state the rule of law and accountability to the ruled The book provides a theoretical framework that contrasts the European and the Afroasian modes of state formation and explores the three major variants of the Ethiopian state since 1600 Gondar Shewa and Revolutionary It does this by employing the conceptual entry point of tributarism and teases out the implications of this perspective for refashioning the embattled postcolonial African political institutions The primary contribution of the book is the novel framing of state formation through the lens of a landed Afroasiatic peasantry in giving rise to a fragile state whose redistributive preoccupation preempted the emergence of a productive economy to serve as a buoyant revenue base Unlike feudal Europe the dependence of the Afroasian state on arm s length overlordship rather than on tightly managed landlordship incentivized endemic extractive contests among elites with the capacity for violence for the non fixed tribute from independent wealth producers Tributarism I argue here stymied the transition from a resilient statehood to a robust nation statehood that befits an open order society This book will be of interest to scholars in economics political science political economics and African Studies Berhanu Abegaz is Professor of Economics College of William Mary USA
