

1. Why do you want this corrections counselor job?

Again, companies want to hire people who are passionate about the job, so you should have a great answer about why you want the position. (And if you don't? You probably should apply elsewhere.)

First, identify a couple of key factors that make the role a great fit for you (e.g., "I love customer support because I love the constant human interaction and the satisfaction that comes from helping someone solve a problem"), then share why you love the company (e.g., "I've always been passionate about education, and I think you guys are doing great things, so I want to be a part of it").

Desistance from Sexual Offending Kelly Richards, 2021-12-23 This book explores how Circles of Support and Accountability can reduce sexual reoffending The release of a notorious sex offender from prison strikes fear into members of the public Media coverage often provokes further panic casting such offenders as irredeemable monsters and ticking time bombs destined to continue preying on innocent children and women In the West governments have responded by enacting heavily punitive and exclusionary policies such as public sex offender registers indefinite detention and lifetime correctional supervision A radically different approach Circles of Support and Accountability CoSA emerged alongside these measures CoSA are groups of trained volunteers who collectively resist the exclusionary impulse instead actively supporting those with sexual offence convictions to reintegrate into communities Despite their seemingly counterintuitive nature the research is clear that CoSA reduce sexual reoffending far better than more popular draconian sex offender management policies However little is understood about how CoSA work This book begins to address this gap by proposing a new way of understanding how CoSA reduce sexual reoffending Drawing on 65 in depth interviews with CoSA participants it offers a new theoretically informed empirical explanation of CoSA s capacity to promote desistance from sexual offending and to turn those convicted of sexual offenders into law abiding and productive members of the community Ultimately it is a call to action demonstrating that we the community must play a more central role in integrating people with sexual offence convictions if we desire safer communities for our children and our selves This work illuminates new directions for research policy and practice and is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminology and criminal justice restorative justice sexual violence and reentry

McCoy,2018-10-16 Journalists John McCoy and Ethan Hoffman spent four months inside the walls of the Washington State Penitentiary at Walla Walla in 1978 just as Washington once a leader in prison reform abandoned its focus on reform and rehabilitation and returned to cell time and punishment It was a brutal transition McCoy and Hoffman roamed the maximum security compound almost at will observing and befriending prisoners and guards The result is a striking depiction of a community in which there was little to do much to fear and a culture that both mimicked and scorned the outside world McCoy s unadorned prose and Hoffman s stunning black and white photographs offer as authentic a portrayal of life in the Big House as outsiders are ever likely to experience Originally published in 1981 Concrete Mama revealed a previously unseen stark and complex world of life on the inside for which it won the Washington State Book Award Long unavailable yet still relevant it is revitalized in a second edition with an introduction by scholar Dan Berger that provides historical context for the book s ongoing resonance along with several previously unpublished photographs      Advanced communication skills Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-02-03 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels      Therapeutic Process and Well-Being in Forensic Psychiatry and Prison Manuela Dudeck,Jürgen Leo Müller,Birgit Angela Völlm,Najat R.
