A workaholic thirty something couple and a baby. Josie Cooper's got the perfect for her life. This former small town girl has worked long and hard to grow her computer start up into a company to be reckoned with. She's also found her soul mate in brilliant quirky and extremely sexy architect Cooper McBride. And they're happily if busily living out their HEA in Manhattan the City that Never Sleeps. The ongoing journey of a happy marriage is one that needs constant work and compromise but Josie and Cooper are experts at thinking creatively to make their lives and relationship vibrant and thriving. But when Josie's brother and his wife are killed in a car accident in the mountains of Tennessee their two small children four year old Lucy and nine month old Ben have nowhere to go unless Josie and Cooper step up. I saw a baby once Josie tells Coop but that's the extent of my experience. Outside of the box thinking is this power couple's forte but adding two understandably needy kids to the chaos of their lives is a daunting challenge one that will test them in unexpected ways. With footnoted commentary about everything from pre smartphone life in 1994 1995 when Embraced by Love was written published and is still set to thoughts on writing romance and how much Romancelandia and her own writing has changed in the past twenty something years Suzanne Brockmann presents a special
