Naval Eyewitnesses James Goulty, 2022-11-04 Goulty tells the story from the perspective of the ordinary sailor or officer who was there The Northern Mariner Although many books have been written about naval actions during the Second World War histories and memoirs in particular few books have attempted to encompass the extraordinary variety of the experience of the war at sea That is why James Goulty's vivid survey is of such value Sailors in the Royal Navy and the Merchant Navy experienced a war fought on a massive scale on every ocean of the world in a diverse range of vessels from battleships aircraft carriers and submarines to merchant ships and fishing boats Their recollections are as varied as the ships they served in and they take the reader through the entire maritime war as it was perceived at the time by those who had direct personal knowledge of it Throughout the book the emphasis is on the experience of individuals their recruitment and training their expectations and the reality they encountered on active service in many different offensive and defensive roles including convoy duty and coastal defence amphibious operations hunting U boats and surface raiders mine sweeping and manning landing and rescue craft A particularly graphic section describes in the words of the sailors themselves what action against the enemy felt like and the impact of casualties seamen who were wounded or killed on board or were lost when their ships sank A fascinating inside view of the maritime warfare emerges which may be less heroic than the image created by some post war accounts but it gives readers today a much more realistic impression of the whole gamut of wartime life at sea     AACN Procedure Manual for Progressive and Critical Care - E-Book AACN,2023-07-07 American Journal of Nursing AJN Book of the Year Awards 1st Place in Critical Care Emergency Nursing 2024 Selected for Doody's Core Titles 2024 with Essential Purchase designation in Critical Care Edited by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses and written by more than 100 critical care experts under the direction of Karen L Johnson PhD RN FAAN this definitive reference represents the gold standard of care for procedures performed in progressive and critical care settings It guides you through procedures common to the adult critical care environment including those performed by advanced practice nurses in an illustrated step by step format This edition now in full color features new procedures new and updated illustrations and updated content throughout reflecting the latest evidence based guidelines and national and international protocols Quick reference tabs make it easier than ever to locate content quickly This new edition integrates key AACN initiatives such as Practice Alerts and coordinates closely with the AACN Core Curriculum for Progressive and Critical Care Nursing 8th Edition Chapter specific quick links employ QR codes for instant access to high quality online references Edited by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses written by more than 100 expert critical care clinicians under the direction of Karen L Johnson PhD RN FAAN and extensively reviewed by more than 100 additional critical care experts to ensure the accuracy and currency Comprehensive coverage includes all procedures commonly performed in progressive and critical care settings including those performed by advanced practice nurses indicated by an AP icon Straightforward step by step organization uses consistent headings to make following a procedure and finding the various supporting elements quick and easy with bulleted lists tables and detailed illustrations throughout to ensure that content is easy to reference and follow Rationales for all interventions in patient and family education assessment patient preparation procedure and monitoring help students understand the rationale for every step and a level of evidence is provided when a research base exists to substantiate an intervention giving insight into the strength of recommendations NEW Additional procedures new and updated illustrations and updated content throughout reflect the latest evidence based guidelines and national and international protocols NEW Full color design with color reference tabs enhances navigation plus full color illustrations reinforce understanding UPDATED Key AACN initiatives such as Practice Alerts are integrated throughout and content coordinates with the AACN Core Curriculum for Progressive and Critical Care Nursing 8th Edition NEW Chapter specific quick links via QR codes provide quick access to online references which have been updated and limited to the highest value sources     Merchant Vessels of the United States... United States. topics Fighting for NOW Kelsy Kretschmer, 2019-03-19 An unparalleled exploration of NOW's trajectory from its founding to the present and its future A new wave of feminist energy has swept the globe since 2016 from women's marches and the MeToo movement to transwomen's inclusion and exclusion in feminism and participation in institutional politics Amid all this an organization declared dead or dying for thirty years the National Organization for Women has seen a membership boom NOW presents an intriguing puzzle for scholars and activists alike Considered one of the most stable organizations in the feminist movement it has experienced much conflict and schism Scholars have long argued that factionalism is the death knell of organizations yet NOW continues to thrive despite internal conflicts Fighting for NOW seeks to better understand how bureaucratic structures like NOW's simultaneously provide stability and longevity while creating space for productive and healthy conflict among members Kelsy Kretschmer explores these ideas through an examination of conflict in NOW's local chapters its task forces and committees and its satellite groups NOW's history provides evidence for three basic arguments bureaucratic groups are not insulated from factionalism they are important sites of creativity and innovation for their movements and schisms are not inherently bad for movement organizations Hence Fighting for NOW is in stark contrast to conventional scholarship which has conceptualized factionalism as organizational failure It also provides one of the few book length explorations of NOW's trajectory from its founding to the modern context Scholars will welcome the book's insights that draw on open systems and resource dependency theories as well as its rethinking of how conflict shapes activist communities Students will welcome its clear and compelling history of the feminist movement and of how feminist ideas have changed over the past five decades Transcatheter mitral valve repair and replacement, An Issue of directors harness the affective properties of film to generate altered states of perception in a manner analogous to religious practice. Powerful feelings of dissociation and indescribable significance typical of mystical testimony appear in viewer responses to these films demonstrating the continued sacralisation of such states of mind. In their own way each film confronts the viewer with an apocalyptic revelation of the impersonal forces of the universe moving away from personhood and the human narrative into pure sensation. They present a non-deterministic spiritual truth that can be intuited but not explained, mirroring developments in the religious sphere. Investigating the relationship between cinematic technique and religious experience, Spiritual Sensations offers an alternative approach to the study of religion and film that has been principally focused on narrative symbolism and the dramatisation of values. Spiritual Sensations makes a further contribution to the field by analysing films contextually, considering viewers' subjective responses in light of religious and cultural change.
