Vasiliev, Denis A. Degterev, Timothy M. Shaw, 2021-09-16 This book discusses the prospects for the development of the African continent as part of the emerging system of international relations in the twenty first century African countries are playing an increasingly important part in the current system of international relations Nevertheless even 60 years after gaining their independence most of them are confronted with regional and global issues that are directly related to their colonial past and its influence Due to Africa s wealth of natural and geopolitical resources the possibility of interference in the internal affairs of African countries on the part of new and traditional global actors remains very real Leading Africanists together with international scholars from both international relations and African studies examine the experience of decolonization the impact of the emergence of a unipolar world on the African continent and the growing influence of new international actors on the African continent in the twenty first century In addition the importance of African countries foreign policy concepts and ideological attitudes in the post bipolar period is revealed This volume strengthens the intellectual bridge between Russian African and Western scholars of international relations Strongly recommended Vladimir G Shubin Institute for African Studies Russian Academy of Sciences This book presents a wide range of prominent global scholars who bring a wealth of knowledge on the subject of Africa and the world Gilbert Khadiagala Jan Smuts Professor of International Relations and Director of the African Centre for the Study of the USA ACSUS at the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg South Africa As a genuine contribution to the field of international relations and Global South Agency this book should be in every institution of higher education s library Lembe Tiky Director of Academic Development International Studies Association
