Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics Johannes C.P. Schmid, 2021-02-24 Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics explores how graphic narratives reframe global crises while also interrogating practices of fact finding An analog print phenomenon in an era shaped by digitalization documentary comics formulates a distinct counterapproach to conventional journalism In what ways are facts being presented and framed What is documentary honesty in a world of fake news and post truth politics How can the stories of marginalized peoples and neglected crises be told The author investigates documentary comics in its unique relationship to framing graphic narratives are essentially shaped by a reciprocal relationship between the manifest frames on the page and the attention to the cognitive frames that they generate To account for both the textuality of comics and its strategic use as rhetoric the author combines theories of framing analysis and cognitive narratology with comics studies and its attention toward the medium's visual frames

Postcolonial Locations Robert Spencer, Anastasia Valassopoulos, 2020-10-19 Postcolonial Locations seeks to clarify the meaning of the postcolonial through close textual readings and prioritises material and located readings over more abstract theoretical discussions it seeks to re orient the field by providing practical explorations of what the discipline is for The book begins with an introduction of the key theoretical debates in the field between the universal and the particular the global and the local but it then goes on to demonstrate via a series of close textual readings that these distinctions are not always useful and that we can achieve a more comprehensive and complete reading of the multiple times places and texts in which colonial power is both exerted and fought An engaging and comprehensive guide to contemporary postcolonial studies this book is essential reading for students as well as professors

The Comics of Hergé Joe Sutliff Sanders, 2016-07-28 Contributions by J nathas Miranda de Ara jo Guillaume de Syon Hugo Frey Kenan Ko ak Andrei Molotiu Annick Pellegrin Benjamin Picado Vanessa Meikle Schulman Matthew Screech and Gwen Athene Tarbox As the creator of Tintin Herg 1907 1983 remains one of the most important and influential figures in the history of comics When Herg born Georges Prosper Remi in Belgium emerged from the controversy surrounding his actions after World War II his most famous work leapt to international fame and set the standard for European comics While his style popularized what became known as the clear line in cartooning this edited volume shows how his life and art turned out much more complicated than his method The book opens with Herg s aesthetic techniques including analyses of his efforts to comprehend and represent absence and the rhythm of mundaneness between panels of action Broad views of his career describe how Herg navigated changing ideas of air travel while precise accounts of his life during Nazi occupation explain how the demands of the occupied press transformed his understanding of what a comics page could do The next section considers a subject with which Herg was himself consumed the fraught lines between high and low art By reading the late masterpieces of the Tintin series these chapters situate his artistic legacy A final section considers how the clear line style has been reinterpreted around the world from contemporary Francophone writers to a Chinese American cartoonist and on to Turkey where Tintin has been reinvented into something meaningful to an audience Herg probably never anticipated Despite the attention already devoted to Herg no multi author critical treatment of his work exists in English the majority of the scholarship being in French With contributors from five continents drawing on a variety of critical methods this volume s range will shape the study of Herg for many years to come

Mapping Israel, Mapping Palestine Jess Bier, 2017-06-30 Digital practices in social and political landscapes Why two researchers can look at the same feature and see different things Maps are widely believed to be objective and data rich computer made maps are iconic examples of digital knowledge It is often claimed that digital maps and rational boundaries can solve political conflict But in Mapping Israel Mapping Palestine Jess Bier challenges the view that digital maps are universal and value free She examines the ways that maps are made in Palestine and Israel to show how social and political landscapes shape the practice of science and technology How can two scientific cartographers look at the same geographic feature and see fundamentally different things In part Bier argues because knowledge about the Israeli military occupation is shaped by the occupation itself Ongoing injustices including checkpoints roadblocks and summary arrests mean that Palestinian and Israeli cartographers have different experiences of the landscape Palestinian forms of empirical knowledge including maps continue to be discounted Bier examines three representative cases of population governance and urban maps She analyzes Israeli population maps from 1967 to 1995 when Palestinian areas were left blank Palestinian state maps of the late 1990s and early 2000s which were influenced by Israeli raids on Palestinian offices and the legacy of British colonial maps and urban maps after the Second Intifada which show how segregated observers produce dramatically different maps of the same area The geographic production of knowledge including what and who are considered scientifically legitimate can change across space and time Bier argues that greater attention to these changes and to related issues of power will open up more heterogeneous ways of engaging with the world Christianity and Comics Blair Davis,2024 This book presents an 80 year history of how the comics industry has drawn inspiration from biblical imagery stories and themes Charting how comics have both reflected and influenced Americans changing attitudes towards religion it includes underground comix books from Christian publishers and a vast array of DC Marvel and Dark Horse titles from Hellboy to Preacher Islam and the West Sadia Zulfiqar,2015-06-18 Islam like the West is not a homogenous monolith However Islam is most commonly represented in the West in terms of suicide bombing suppressed and veiled women and internal and external conflict These depictions of Islam suggest that the relationship between Islam and the West is and has always been one of hostility and hatred However this collection locates threads of connection and love between Islam and the West and argues that it is important to bring them to the forefront i Graphic Novels Michael Pawuk,David S. Factory Summers Guy Delisle, 2022-08-03 For three summers beginning when he was 16 cartoonist Guy Delisle worked at a pulp and paper factory in Quebec City Factory Summers chronicles the daily rhythms of life in the mill and the twelve hour shifts he spent in a hot noisy building filled with arcane machinery Delisle takes his noted outsider perspective and applies it domestically this time as a boy amongst men through the universal rite of passage of the summer job Even as a teenager Delisle s keen eye for hypocrisy highlights the tensions of class and the rampant sexism an all male workplace permits Guy works the floor doing physically strenuous tasks He is one of the few young people on site and furthermore gets the job through his father s connections a fact which rightfully earns him disdain from the lifers Guy s dad spends his whole career in the white collar offices working 9 to 5 instead of the rigorous 12 hour shifts of the unionized labor Guy and his dad aren t close and Factory Summers leaves Delisle reconciling whether the job led to his dad s aloofness and unhappiness On his days off Guy finds refuge in art a world far beyond the factory floor Delisle shows himself rediscovering comics at the public library and preparing for animation school only to be told on the first day There are no jobs in animation Eager to pursue a job he enjoys Guy throws caution to the wind Translated by Helge Dascher and Rob Aspinall

Nina Mickwitz, 2016-04-29 Can comics be documentary and can documentary take the form of and thus be comics Examining comics as documentary this book challenges the persistent assumption that ties documentary to recording technologies and instead engages an understanding of the category in terms of narrative performativity and witnessing Through a cluster of early twenty first century comics Nina Mickwitz argues that these comics share a documentary ambition to visually narrate and represent aspects and events of the real world Where Heaven Touches Earth Dovid Rossoff, 2001 Paints a panorama of Jerusalem in all her glory from medieval times and the era of the Crusaders through the poverty stricken Jewish communities of the last centuries and their strength and heroism ending with a look at Jerusalem today Carefully researched with stories biographies an index charts and photographs Comics Harriet E.H.
