Jesus Heals A Mute Man Craft:

Matthew's Presentation of the Son of David H. Daniel Zacharias, 2016-12-01 H Daniel Zacharias presents a literary critical analysis of the Gospel of Matthew and its interaction with Davidic tradition and use of Davidic typology Throughout the narrative the evangelist makes pervasive use of Davidic tradition from the Old Testament in his portrayal of Jesus This begins from the first verse and the declaration that Jesus is the Son of David and culminates in Jesus usage of Psalm 22 s Davidic lament on the cross Davidic material is present throughout Matthew in allusion in specific citations in thematic material In addition Matthew makes use of Davidic typology numerous times with David as type and Jesus as anti type Zacharias shows how the use of Davidic material presents to the reader a scripturally grounded redefinition of what it means for Jesus to be the Son of David not as a violent militant leader as some expected but as a physical descendant of David a healing shepherd and a humble king Within the Gospel Matthew utilizes Davidic typology to show how the Son of David even has similar experiences as his royal predecessor Even David s own words from the psalms are utilized as testimony to the legitimacy of Jesus as the Davidic Messiah

Dialogue in the Book of Signs Johnson Thomaskutty, 2015-07-14 Dialogue in the Book of Signs offers a polyvalent analysis of John 1:19-12:50 at the micro, meso and macro levels. With the help of several synchronic methods including genre, narrative, rhetorical and dramatic studies, the author analyzes the content, form and function of John's dialogue. Thus the divine-human dialogue which is interwoven within the text provides a key to the understanding of the dialogue between the narrator and the reader. In this volume, after setting a background and a theoretical framework, an extensive exploration of dialogue at the exchange, episode and narrative levels is offered. The connection of dialogue with other literary aspects such as monologues, signs, I AM sayings and metaphors is also established. Thus this study provides a comprehensive understanding of dialogue in John 1:12. Matthew Michael J. Wilkins, 2009-05-26 The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context. The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved. This unique award winning commentary is the ideal resource for today's preachers, teachers and serious students of the Bible, giving them the tools, ideas and insights they need to communicate God's Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written. Mark Mark L. Jesus's epithets "Teacher" and "Prophet": a cognitive semantics approach to social roles Aurel-Onisim LEHACI, The book explores the complementarity of these roles, highlighting their portrayal of Jesus's key attributes and his dual human-divine identity. Cognitive linguistics provides the perspective for delving into these social roles, emphasizing their significance in understanding the complexity of Jesus's character. Margaret's Monsters Michael E. Heyes, 2019-12-06 St Margaret of Antioch was one of the most popular saints in medieval England and throughout the Middle Ages the various Lives of St Margaret functioned as a blueprint for a virginal life and supernatural assistance to pregnant women during the dangerous process of labor In her narrative Margaret is accosted by various demons and having defeated each monster in turn she is taken to the place of her martyrdom where she prays for supernatural boons for her adherents This book argues that Margaret's monsters are a key element in understanding Margaret's importance to her adherents specifically how the sexual identities of her adherents were constructed and maintained More broadly this study offers three major contributions to the field of medieval studies first it argues for the utility of a diachronic analysis of Saints Lives literature in a field dominated by synchronic analyses second this diachronic analysis is important to interpreting the intertext of Saints Lives not only between different Lives but also different versions of the same Life and third the approach further suggests that the most valuable socio cultural information in hagiographic literature is found in the auxiliary characters and not in the figure of the saint him herself

Matthew's Christian-Jewish Community Anthony J. Saldarini, 1994-05-16 The most Jewish of gospels in its contents and yet the most anti Jewish in its polemics the Gospel of Matthew has been said to mark the emergence of Christianity from Judaism Anthony J Saldarini overturns this interpretation by showing us how Matthew far from proclaiming the replacement of Israel by the Christian church wrote from within Jewish tradition to a distinctly Jewish audience Recent research reveals that among both Jews and Christians of the first century many groups believed in Jesus while remaining close to Judaism Saldarini argues that the author of the Gospel of Matthew belonged to such a group supporting his claim with an informed reading of Matthew's text and historical context. Matthew emerges as a Jewish teacher competing for the commitment of his people after the catastrophic loss of the Temple in 70 C.E. his polemics aimed not at all Jews but at those who oppose him. Saldarini shows that Matthew's teaching about Jesus fits into first century Jewish thought with its tradition of God sent leaders and heavenly mediators. In Saldarini's account Matthew's Christian Jewish community is a Jewish group albeit one that deviated from the larger Jewish community. Contributing to both New Testament and Judaic studies this book advances our understanding of how religious groups are formed.
