began to overtake the political landscape in the 1960s network broadcast companies bolstered by powerful lobbying interests dominated screens across the nation Yet over the next three decades the expansion of a different technology cable changed all of this 24 7 Politics tells the story of how the cable industry worked with political leaders to create an entirely new approach to television one that tethered politics to profits and divided and distracted Americans by feeding their appetite for entertainment frequently at the expense of fostering responsible citizenship In this timely and provocative book Kathryn Cramer Brownell argues that cable television itself is not to blame for today s rampant polarization and scandal politics the intentional restructuring of television as a political institution is She describes how cable innovations from C SPAN coverage of congressional debates in the 1980s to MTV s foray into presidential politics in the 1990s took on network broadcasting using market forces giving rise to a more decentralized media world Brownell shows how cable became an unstoppable medium for political communication that prioritized cult followings and loyalty to individual brands fundamentally reshaped party politics and in the process sowed the seeds of democratic upheaval 24 7 Politics reveals how cable TV created new possibilities for antiestablishment voices and opened a pathway to political prominence for seemingly unlikely figures like Donald Trump by playing to narrow audiences and cultivating division instead of common ground

The Media and Neo-Populism Gianpietro Mazzoleni, Julianne Stewart, Bruce Horsfield, 2003-02-28 Mazzoleni Stewart Horsfield and their contributors analyze the two way relationship of the mass media and the contemporary phenomenon of extreme right wing neo populist political parties which emerged in the closing years of the 20th century across the world The success of Jean Marie Le Pen leader of the neo populist Front National in the first French presidential ballot in April 2002 shows that these extremist parties have strong if varying electoral support Drawn into reporting on the policies and antigovernment critiques of the new parties the mass communication institutions especially those engaged in news production have been challenged by a variety of unconventional but effective political campaign strategies that caused many media professionals considerable challenge Taking an approach informed by mass communication theory this book analyzes eight case studies of the interaction of news media dynamics and neo populism in Austria Australia France Canada India Italy the United States and the Latin American region against the background of widespread disenchantment with traditional parties and the complacency and cynicism of popularly elected governments Insights into media responses reveal how dependent on media coverage the neo populist parties were and how in many cases the media were initially unequal to the confronting ideologies of the new parties Although the news media exploited the new parties new parties exploited the news media as well in quite shrewd and original ways This is an important resource for scholars students and other researchers involved with political mass communications and right wing political organizations
