

Introduction

Field study is one of the most important courses that an aspiring teacher should undergo and experience. Through this program, a student teacher like me is given an opportunity to study and observe the educational environment, its facilities, and its surroundings. During the field study, we are introduced school setting, student teachers, as well as the organizational structure. By immersing ourselves in the actual classroom setup we get to observe the students' behavior which will help us learn and think of the strategies that we could use in our practice teaching endeavor.

Through field study student teachers gains knowledge and skills that will improve our teaching. We will be trained on how to communicate well with the students and we get to exchange ideas with our cooperating teachers and co-student teachers. Field study is a whole new experience of learning it is exciting and challenging. Learning through experience is the most effective way to learn because the knowledge gained through experience is instilled in our minds and it leaves a mark that is hard to forget.

Field study serves as a foreshadowing of what a student teacher like us should expect as we continue seizing our dreams of becoming licensed professional teachers. For some of us, this helps to realize whether or not we want to continue pursuing the teaching profession. Our experiences of being immersed in the real school setting and doing what a real teacher does may help us decide if we want to be a teacher. Yet this is a great experience, an eye-opener, and a great source of knowledge. It helps us somehow familiarize the environment of our desired teaching profession.
