

What is Student Council?

Student Council is an important part of our school. Student Council is a student-based civic organization designed to help promote school spirit and leadership among students.

Students participating in all levels of Student Council will maintain a high standard of personal conduct. Student Council members will demonstrate leadership qualities by serving as good examples of behavior through their words and actions.

All Council members will be expected to participate in approved activities, which will serve to enhance the quality of both the physical and behavior environment of the school.

The Purpose Of Student Council Is:

1. To develop positive attitudes and to practice good citizenship.
2. To promote harmonious relationships throughout the entire school.
3. To improve student/faculty relationships.
4. To improve school morale and general welfare.
5. To provide a forum for student expression.
6. To plan special events or projects.

Benefits of being involved in student council includes opportunity to improve reading and writing skills, gain experience in public speaking, and learn how to make a positive impact on school and community environment. In addition, student council serves as a chance to meet new friends and work with a wide variety of people.

Objectives Of The Student Council Are To:

1. Provide a democratic form in which students can address those school related issues, which affect their lives.
2. Maintain open communication between students and school staff.
3. Train students in the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship.

Students must be very responsible people who are willing to work hard. As student council members you will be called to Klesse,2004 What are student activities Why do schools have student activity groups What are the benefits for students schools and communities These are some of the questions that Student Activities in Today s Schools addresses Klesse has reviewed relevant educational research to provide an overview of the essential learning for all youth that is available from participation What are those benefits and who benefits Why don t all young people participate Are there ways to make student activity programs in schools more inclusive What will these programs look like in 5 10 and 15 years Schools must educate and develop our youth to meet the challenge of participation and survival in a global economy The skills learned through student activities provide the foundation for adult participation as citizens of our democracy So how do we best prepare our young people for the future Read this book to find out Young People and Active Citizenship in Post-Soviet Times Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz,Anna Zalewska,Kerry J. Kennedy,2017-08-10 Situated within the context of post soviet times this book explores young people s citizenship activities and values in three distinct environments post soviet union countries post soviet union satellites and countries that were independent of the soviet union Its purpose is to investigate the influence of these contexts on the ways young people see their citizenship in what are now emerging democracies The future of nations depends to a large extent on whether citizens will continue to support existing values and will engage in activities to support those values Using a framework designed by Kennedy 2006 and further developed by Zalewska Krzywosz Rynkiewicz 2011 the study examined the citizenship values of 3794 students aged 11 14 18 from 11 European countries The main themes of this book include exploring similarities and differences in citizenship activities within countries and across countries advancing explanations for these similarities and differences highlighting the importance of contexts that influence citizenship activities and values and assessing the extent to which democratic values are reflected in young people s citizenship activities The Middle School Louis G.
