Colonial Legacies And Contemporary Studies Of China And Chineseness: Unlearning Binaries, Strategizing Self Prapin Manomaivibool, Zhiyu Shi, Chih-yu Shih, Mariko Tanigaki, Swaran Singh, 2020 Colonial legacies in knowledge production affect the way the world is represented and understood today. However, the subject is rarely attended. The book Colonial Legacies and Contemporary Studies of China and Chineseness: Unlearning Binaries Strategizing Self is about the colonial construction of intellectual perspectives of the colonized population in terms of the latter's approach to China and Chineseness in the modern world. Relying on the available oral histories of senior China scholars primarily in Asia, authors from various postcolonial and colonial sites present these multiple routes of self constitution and reconstitution through the use of China and Chineseness as category. The revealed manipulation of this third category romantically as well as antagonistically is easier than straightforward self reflection for us all to accept that coming to identities and relations none even subaltern is politically innocent or capable of epistemological monopoly. Through comparative studies it shows a way of self understanding that does not always require discursive construction of border or cultural consumption of any specific other.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander School Teachers and Australian Settler Colonialism Kay Whitehead, 2025-09-11 This book addresses the gap in our historical knowledge about the roles Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander teachers have played in Australia's history of school education. To date there are few references to schooling in histories of Indigenous Australians and Australian histories of Indigenous education and teacher education omit Indigenous teachers until systemic initiatives were introduced to recruit and qualify them in the 1970s. This book reinstates and honours Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who worked as school teachers from invasion to contemporary state school systems. The book is structured chronologically to explore Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander teachers' lives and work in relation to settler colonial policies of segregation and protection, assimilation and self determination and education policy and practice. The chapters span the nineteenth century to contemporary times and show the systemic challenges Indigenous people faced in becoming qualified teachers and joining the profession. Stories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander teachers from different geographic regions, communities and historical periods foreground their agency including their political activism and take account of localised cultural and education contexts. This insightful book is recommended for upper level undergraduates and academics in Indigenous education history of education teacher education and teachers work. It will also appeal to readers with a general interest in Australian Indigenous history.
