On June 2, 1982, the three members of the group were interviewed by FBI Agent C. Rogers. One hour before the interview, the three were telephonically informed that the FBI was conducting an investigation of the group's activities. The three were then interviewed separately. Each was advised that the FBI was conducting an investigation of the group's activities and that the FBI was not seeking to prosecute any of the three. The three were then interviewed together. Each was advised that the FBI was conducting an investigation of the group's activities and that the FBI was not seeking to prosecute any of the three. The three were then interviewed together. Each was advised that the FBI was conducting an investigation of the group's activities and that the FBI was not seeking to prosecute any of the three.
