Liturgical Time and Space Anscar J. Chupungco, 2000 The final volume in the Handbook for Liturgical Studies series Volume V Liturgical Time and Space contains the concluding material for an integral study of the liturgy It opens with a preliminary notion of time and space before discussing in detail three types of liturgical celebrations on which time and space have a direct and particular bearing The first of these is the Liturgy of the Hours This topic is developed in the light of the early Christian tradition until the fourth century and its subsequent forms in both East and West The second is the Liturgical Year traditionally called the anni circulas The development of the Liturgical Year during the first four centuries is reviewed This is followed by a detailed study of the Byzantine Roman and non Roman Western tradition It concludes with the theology and spirituality of the Liturgical Year wherein the mystery of Christ as a saving event is made present in time so that the faithful may lay hold of it through the Word and the sacraments The theology of liturgical space is drawn from the mutual interaction between the assembled community which gives meaning to the place of assembly and the place itself which upholds and signifies community Articles and their contributors in Part I Liturgy of the Hours are Liturgy of the Hours in the First Four Centuries by Ruben Leikam OSB Liturgy of the Hours in the East by Robert Taft SJ Liturgy of the Hours in the Roman Rite by Ruben Leikam OSB Liturgy of the Hours in the Non Roman West by Ruben Leikam OSB and Theology of the Liturgy of the Hours by Robert Taft SJ Articles and their contributors in Part II The Liturgical Year are The Liturgical Year in the East by Matias Auge CMF The Liturgical Year in the East by Elena Velkova Velkovska The Liturgical Year in the Roman Rite by Matias Auge CMF The Liturgical Year in the Non Roman West by Gabriel Ramis The Cult of Mary in East and West by Ignacio Calabuig OSM The Cult of Saints in East and West by Philippe Rouillard OSB and Theology of the Liturgical Year by Matias Auge CMF Articles and their contributors in Part III Liturgical Space are Dedication of the Church in East and West by Ignacio Calabuig OSM Liturgical Architecture in East and West by Crispino Valenziano and Theology of Liturgical Space by Cettina Militello Anscar J Chupungco OSB is the director of the Paul VI Institute of Liturgy in the Philippines and professor of liturgical inculturation at the Pontifical Liturgical Institute in Rome Among his publications are Liturgies of the Future The Process and Methods of Inculturation and Liturgical Inculturation Sacraments Religiosity and Catechesis published by The Liturgical Press

Imagining London John Clement Ball, 2004-01-01 Imagining London examines representations of the English metropolis in Canadian West Indian South Asian and second generation black British novels written in the last half of the twentieth century Time and Space in Ancient Myth, Religion and Culture SNF-Projekt, Menelaos Christopoulos, Athina Papachrysostomou, 2017-10-10 From Homer to Sophocles and Greek Middle Comedy and from Plato and Protagoras to Ovid this volume features a panoramic and cross generic overview of the diverse handling and ad hoc elaboration of the overarching literary notions of time and space The twenty one contributions of this volume written by an international group of esteemed scholars provide an equal number of hermeneutic approaches to individual distinct aspects of Greek and Latin literature The volume is purposely designed not as a linear display of knowledge but rather as an anthology of select paradigms that aim to demonstrate the multidimensional function and multifaceted role of the twin notions of time and space throughout ancient Greek and Latin literary texts The volume opens with analyses of conspicuous cases from epic poetry proceeds with examples from drama tragedy and comedy and concludes with diverse instances of chronotopes empirical imaginary and even shifting ones in various literary genres The volume is of greatest relevance since it meets the cultural and theoretical trends of today's Classics It therefore will attract not only the interest of specialised Classicists but it is also intended for a wider general readership

Icons of Space Jelena Bogdanović, 2021-07-26 Icons of Space Advances in Hierotopy brings together important scholars of Byzantine religion art and architecture to honour the work of renowned art historian Alexei Lidov As well as his numerous publications Lidov is well known for developing the concept of hierotopy an innovative approach for studying the creation of sacred spaces Hierotopy and the related concepts of spatial icons and image paradigms emphasize fundamental questions about icons including what defines them as structures spaces and experiences Chapters in this volume engage with the overarching theme of icons of space by employing contrasting and complementing methods of hierotopy with more traditional approaches such as iconography Examinations of icons have traditionally been positioned within strictly historical theological socio economic political and art history domains but this volume poses epistemological questions about the creation of sacred spaces that are instead inclusive of multi layered iconic ideas and the lived experiences of the creators and beholders of such spaces This book contributes to image theory and theories of architecture and sacred space Simultaneously it moves beyond colonial studies that predominantly focus on questions of religion and politics as expressions of privileged knowledge and power This book will appeal to scholars and students of Byzantine history as well as those interested in hierotopy and art history

Garcia,2015-04-24 Arising from the philosophical conviction that our sense of space plays a direct role in our apprehension and construction of reality both factual and fictional this book investigates how conceptions of postmodern space have transformed the history of the impossible in literature Deeply influenced by the work of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar there has been an unprecedented rise in the number of fantastic texts in which the impossible is bound to space space not as scene of action but as impossible element performing a fantastic transgression within the storyworld This book conceptualizes and contextualizes this postmodern fantastic use of space that disrupts the reader's comfortable notion of space as objective reality in favor of the concept of space as socially mediated constructed and conventional In an illustration of the transnational nature of this phenomenon García analyzes a varied corpus of the Fantastic in the past four decades from different cultures and languages merging literary analysis with classical questions of space related to the fields of philosophy urban studies and anthropology Texts include authors such as Julio Cortázar Argentina John Barth USA J G Ballard UK Jacques Sternberg Belgium Fernando Iwasaki Per Juan José Millás Spain and Ric Faye France This book contributes to Literary Theory and Comparative Literature in the areas of the Fantastic narratology and Geocriticism and informs the continuing interdisciplinary debate on how human beings make sense of space     American Sacred Space David Chidester,Edward T. Linenthal,1995-11-22 In a series of pioneering studies this book examines the creation and the conflict behind the creation of sacred space in America The essays in this volume visit places in America where economic political and social forces clash over the sacred and the profane from wilderness areas in the American West to the Mall in Washington D C and they investigate visions of America as sacred space at home and abroad Here are the beginnings of a new American religious history told as the story of the contested spaces it has inhabited The contributors are David Chidester Matthew Glass Edward T Linenthal Colleen McDannell Robert S Michaelsen Rowland A Sherrill and Bron Taylor     The Rise and Triumph of Methodism L Alfred Jenkins,E Hope Jenkins,2023-05-30 This book tells the story of how American democracy and early Wesleyan Methodism wed It is the story not of the institutional church but of a concept fathered by John Wesley and American democracy egalitarian universalism Anytime something new appears it needs an engine to push it along Francis Asbury his circuit riders America's early poets and the Black slaves became that engine This book will show how egalitarian universalism as defined by the New Testament became the concept that guided the development of America's new democracy The book will also show how this revolutionary concept was squeezed when the Civil War rushed in Had it not been for the gospel writer and his Luke Acts American democracy and Methodism might have been forever lost     The Fiction of Occasion in Hellenistic and Roman Poetry Adrian Gramps,2021-07-05 The aim of this book is to devise a method for approaching the problem of presence in Hellenistic and Roman poetry The problem of presence as defined here is the problem of the availability or accessibility to the reader of the fictional worlds disclosed by poetry From Callimachus Hymns to the Odes of Horace poets of this era repeatedly challenge readers by beckoning them to explore fictive spaces which are at once familiar and otherworldly realms of the imagination which are nevertheless firmly rooted in the lived reality of the poets and their contemporaries We too when we read these poems may feel simultaneously a sense of being transported to a world apart and of being seized upon by the poem's address in the here and now of reading The fiction of occasion is proposed as a new conceptual tool for understanding how these poems produce such problematic presences and what varieties of experience they make possible for their readers The fiction of occasion is defined as a phenomenon whereby a poem is fictionally framed as part of a material event or occasion with which the reader is invited to engage through the medium of the senses The book explores this concept through close readings of key authors from the corpus of first person poetry written in Greek and Latin between the 3rd century BCE and the 1st century CE with a focus on Callimachus Bion Catullus Propertius and Horace The ultimate purpose of these readings is to move towards developing a new vocabulary for conceptualising ancient poetry as an embodied experience

The Creation of an Encapsulated Space for Cross Racial Nurse Practitioner-patient Relationships Ramona A. Benkert, 2002      A Space of Their Own Katie Baker, Naomi Walker, 2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women's rights in society It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space Therefore it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature for example in gender studies cultural geography place writing and digital humanities

Crisis at Work J. Potter, 2015-06-09 This book explores how we make sense of ourselves when work is precarious and intrinsically alienating We know little about how this experience of work impacts the lives of men and women and less about the way individuals understand themselves in the face of institutions and organizations from which they feel marginalized Based on the narratives of men and women who underwent extraordinary work life changes Crisis at Work examines how we negotiate greater meaning and fulfilment when our productive lives fail to sustain and satisfy Reflecting a growing fracture between what we value believe in and are committed to and the degree to which work and career have become incapable of assuaging those desires Potter examines how individuals attempt to assemble working lives they find rich and rewarding and how that work is negotiated within the constraints and possibilities of the contemporary moment

Re-Thinking Literary Identities Laura Monrós-Gaspar, 2018-06-21 Great Britain is changing and so is Europe The aim of this book therefore is to reflect upon the processes of re creation of art and literature within and against the backdrop of the shifting paradigms of the world as we know it At a time when the political relations between Great Britain Europe and the rest of the world are being redefined this book examines the de construction of modern identities through the de codification of classical and contemporary mythologies     The Nation and Athenæum ,1910
