Images Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2015-08-31 One of the big myths and metaphors of the postmodern age is the Cyborg which includes a large amount of different meanings The Cyborg often expresses the transformation and extension of the body and exemplifies a postmodern range of technical determinism and human comprehension In this perspective the Cyborg is no longer a concept of science fiction technical apocalypse or cyberpunk but more a construct that highlights the relation of modern media technologies within our every day culture as well as the body and mind of spectators and users of these media systems We are connected with a variety of poly sensual media systems and we use its potential for communication multiplying knowledge spatial and temporal orientation or aesthetic experience Therefore we are a kind of Cyborgs connected to media by complex multimodal interfaces This volume monitors and discusses the relation of postmodern humans and media technologies and therefore refers to Cyborgs interfaces and apparatuses within the perspective of an autonomous image science Friends , Wired TV Denise Mann, 2014-02-11

This collection looks at the post network television industry's heady experiments with new forms of interactive storytelling or wired TV that took place from 2005 to 2010 as the networks responded to the introduction of broadband into the majority of homes and the proliferation of popular participatory Web 2.0 companies like Facebook YouTube and Twitter Contributors address a wide range of issues from the networks' sporadic efforts to engage fans using transmedia storytelling to the production inefficiencies that continue to dog network television to the impact of multimedia convergence and multinational corporate conglomeration on entrepreneurial creativity With essays from such top scholars as Henry Jenkins John T. Caldwell and Jonathan Gray and from new and exciting voices emerging in this field Wired TV elucidates the myriad new digital threats and the equal number of digital opportunities that have become part and parcel of today's post network era Readers will quickly recognize the familiar television franchises on which the contributors focus including Lost The Office Entourage Battlestar Galactica The L Word and Heroes in order to reveal their impact on an industry in transition While it is not easy for vast bureaucracies to change course executives from key network divisions engaged in an unprecedented period of innovation and collaboration with four important groups members of the Hollywood creative community who wanted to expand television's storytelling worlds and marketing capabilities by incorporating social media members of the Silicon Valley tech community who were keen to rethink television distribution for the digital era members of the Madison Avenue advertising community who were eager to rethink ad supported content and fans who were enthusiastic and willing to use social media story extensions to proselytize on behalf of a favorite network series In the aftermath of the lengthy Writers Guild of America strike of 2007-2008 the networks clamped down on such collaborations and began to reclaim control over their operations locking themselves back into an aging system of interconnected bureaucracies entrenched hierarchies and traditional partners from the past What s next for the future of the television industry Stay tuned or at least online Contributors Vincent Brook Will Brooker John T Caldwell M J Clarke Jonathan Gray Henry Jenkins Derek Johnson Robert V Kozinets Denise Mann Katynka Z Mart nez and Julie Levin Russo Internet Drama and Mystery Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace,2014-11-26 Created around the world and available only on the Web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through online crowd funding they are produced with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance The second in a first ever set of books cataloging Internet television series this volume covers in depth the drama and mystery genres with detailed entries on 405 shows from 1996 through July 2014 In addition to casts credits and story lines each entry provides a website commentary and episode descriptions Index of performers and personnel are included A Guide to British Historical Fiction John Anthony Buckley,William Tom Williams,1912 Maria of Austria, Holy Roman Empress (1528-1603) Rubén González Cuerva,2021-10-31 Maria of Austria was one of the longest surviving Renaissance Empresses but until now has received little attention by biographers This book explores her life actions and management of domestic affairs which became a feared example of how an Empress could control alternative spheres of power The volume traces the path of a Castilian orphan infanta raised among her mother s Portuguese ladies in waiting and who spent thirty years of marriage between the imperial courts of Prague and Vienna Empress Maria encapsulates the complex dynastic functioning of the Habsburgs devotedly married to her cousin Maximilian II Maria had constant communication with her father Charles V and her brother Philip II while preserving her Spanish background Her unique intertwining of roles and positions allows a fresh approach to female agency and the discussion of current issues the rules of dynastic entente the negotiation of discreet political roles for royal women the reassessment of informal diplomacy and the creation of dynastic networks parallel to the embassies With chronological chapters discussing Empress Maria s roles such as infanta regent Empress and a widow this volume is the perfect resource for scholars and students interested in the history of gender court culture and early modern Central Europe Andrew V. McLaglen Stephen B. Armstrong,2011-09-07 Here is a comprehensive survey of the film and television career of London born director Andrew V McLaglen An opening biography considers the events and circumstances that contributed to his development as a filmmaker including his relationships with his actor father Victor McLaglen fellow director John Ford and motion picture icon John Wayne who collaborated with Andrew McLaglen on such films as McLintock 1963 Hellfighters 1968 The Undefeated 1969 and Chisum 1970 An extensive annotated filmography covers every theatrical feature film McLaglen directed as well as his television productions and the films he worked on prior to becoming a director Appendices provide information on the numerous documentaries in which McLaglen has appeared and a list of stage plays he has directed since his retirement from motion pictures in 1989 Making Animals Public Gay Hawkins and Ben Dibley,2024-06-01 Making Animals Public television animality and political engagement focuses on the proliferation of animal content on television and how this has transformed how animals are known and encountered generating unique modes of televisual animality The book examines the multiplicity of public realities and knowledges that animals on TV have constituted from scientific objectivity to the unique Australian environment to controversial victims of gross exploitation Just as television has made animals public in very particular ways it has also made new publics that have learnt to be affected by them Thanks to extraordinary access to the ABC's Natural History and general archives the authors are able to investigate the dynamic relation between making animals public and making publics over time

Xenophon's Virtues Gabriel Danzig, David M. Johnson, David Konstan, 2024-07-22 While Plato's and Aristotle's theories of virtue have received extensive scholarly attention less work has been done on Xenophon's portraits of virtue and on his attitude towards the theoretical issues connected with it And yet Xenophon offers one of the best sources we have for thinking about virtue in ancient Greece because he combines the analytical interests of a Socratic with a historian's interest in real life Until recently scholars of Xenophon tended to focus either on the historiographical writings or on the philosophical writings chiefly Memorabilia with some attention to the other Socratic writings and Hiero Cyropaedia was treated as a separate entity and Xenophon's short and more technical treatises were generally studied only by those with particular interest in their specialized topics such as horsemanship hunting and Athenian finances But recent work by Vincent Azoulay and by Vivienne Gray have shown the essential unity of his writings This volume continues this pan-Xenophonic trend by studying the virtues across Xenophon's oeuvre and connecting them with a wide range of Greek literature from Homer and the tragedians to Herodotus and Thucydides the orators Plato and Aristotle
