The Complicit Text Ivan Stacy, 2020-12-10 The Complicit Text Failures of Witnessing in Postwar Fiction identifies the causes of complicity in the face of unfolding atrocities by examining the works of Albert Camus Milan Kundera Kazuo Ishiguro W G Sebald Thomas Pynchon and Margaret Atwood Ivan Stacy argues that complicity often stems from narrative failures to bear witness to wrongdoing However literary fiction he contends can at once embody and examine forms of complicity on three different levels as a theme within literary texts as a narrative form and also as it implicates readers themselves through empathetic engagement with the text Furthermore Stacy questions what forms of non complicit action are possible and explores the potential for productive forms of compromise Stacy discusses both individual dilemmas of complicity in the shadow of World War II and collective complicity in the context of contemporary concerns such as the hegemony of neoliberalism and the climate emergency

Teaching with Dystopian Text Michael Arthur Soares, 2023-10-10 Teaching with Dystopian Text propounds an exchange of spatial to pedagogical practices centered around Orwellian Spaces signaling a new utility for teaching with dystopian texts in secondary education The volume details the urgency of dystopian texts for secondary students providing theoretical frameworks classroom examples and practical research The function of dystopian texts such as George Orwell s 1984 as social and political critique is demonstrated as central to their power Teaching with Dystopian Text Exploring Orwellian Spaces for Student Empowerment and Resilience makes a case that dystopian texts can be instrumental in the transfer of spatial practices to pedagogical practices Pedagogical application creates links between the text and the student through defamiliarization connecting the student to practices of resistance in the space of the classroom The volume also addresses the challenges of teaching dystopian text in a dystopian educational climate including the COVID 19 lockdown In addition to appealing to scholars and researchers of literacy education language education and dystopian text this book will also be a powerful yet accessible resource for secondary teachers as they address dystopian concerns with students in the complicated twenty first century Reader's Block Matthew Rubery,2022-10-04 What does the term reading mean Matthew Rubery s exploration of the influence neurodivergence has on the ways individuals read asks us to consider that there may be no one definition This alternative history of reading tells the stories of atypical readers and the impact had on their lives by neurological conditions affecting their ability to make sense of the printed word from dyslexia hyperlexia and alexia to synesthesia hallucinations and dementia Rubery s focus on neurodiversity aims to transform our understanding of the very concept of reading Drawing on personal testimonies gathered from literature film life writing social media medical case studies and other sources to express how cognitive differences have shaped people s experiences both on and off the page Rubery contends that there is no single activity known as reading Instead there are multiple ways of reading and for that matter not reading despite the ease with which we use the term Pushing us to rethink what it means to read Reader s Block moves toward an understanding of reading as a spectrum that is capacious enough to accommodate the full range of activities documented in this fascinating and highly original book Read it from cover to cover out of sequence or piecemeal Read it upside down sideways or in a mirror For just as there is no right way to read there is no right way to read this book What matters is that you are doing something with it something that Rubery proposes should be called reading Ray Bradbury Jonathan R. The Empire of the Text Christopher Leigh Connery, 1998 This unique study argues that in the Qin Han period there arose in China a regime of textual authority_ one that overlapped but did not coincide with imperial authority Drawing on a wide range of research and theory Connery makes an original contribution to the analysis of early imperial elite culture particularly in the fields of literature and linguistics intellectual and institutional history The author provides new contexts for thinking about canonization and textual transmission systems an innovative framework for analysis and discussion of the early imperial elite a socio ideological exploration of one strand of late Han Confucian thought and a critique of the concepts of subjectivity and the birth of lyricism in China

David Foster Wallace and the Body Peter Sloane, 2019-05-17 David Foster Wallace and the Body is the first full length study to focus on Wallace s career long fascination with the human body and the textual representation of the body The book provides engaging accessible close readings that highlight the importance of the overlooked and yet central theme of all of this major American author s works having a body Wallace repeatedly made clear that good fiction is about what it means to be a human being A large part of what that means is having a body and being conscious of the conflicts that arise morally and physically as a result a fact with which as Wallace forcefully and convincingly argues we all desire to be reconciled Given the ubiquity of the themes of embodiment in Wallace s work this study is an important addition to an expanding field The book also opens up the themes addressed to interrogate aspects of contemporary literature culture and society more generally placing Wallace s works in the history of literary and philosophical engagements with the brute fact of embodiment

Exploring Text, Media, and Memory Patrizia Lombardo, Lars SAetre, Lars S'tre, Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2018-12-31 Exploring Text Media and Memory investigates the link between memory and media by asking a series of questions pertinent to our time How do individual and collective memories blend How do traumatic experiences from past events and catastrophic projections of the future reveal the human condition in the epoch of frenetic technological reproduction of works of art How is the human body tied to narrations and why A group of international scholars tackle questions like these across art forms media and cultural history In nineteen essays they argue that modern and contemporary literary texts and visual arts show how photography film tape recording television and internet are not just means of storing memory and information but objects that we interact with every day challenging static visions of places and the linear notions of past present and future
