Back Cover The Desire of Ages E. G. White, 2015-03-01 More than six billion of us live on this planet now growing rapidly toward seven billion. We're separated by many differences: sex, race, religion, language, customs, and geography. Nevertheless, we also have some things in common. We breathe the same air. We all bleed the same red blood. We all need food, rest, and shelter. Oh yes, we have one other thing familiar to each one of us: we all want happiness. Happiness, an elusive sort of nebulous something that every one of us spends a lifetime pursuing. Some of us try to find it in things. We think that if only we could be rich, we'd be happy. When we're rich, we have money. Money buys things, and things make us happy. Or do they? Others of us try to find happiness in becoming well known, maybe even famous. If the masses adore us, surely then we would be happy, right? Or maybe we look for happiness in being powerful and important, in plunging headlong into pleasure seeking and entertainment, or in trying to find someone else who can make us happy. We want happiness. We crave it, all of us. Through all ages of history, we have desired it. Nevertheless, this inexpressible desire of all ages cannot be found in things, in fame, in power, in pleasure seeking. It can be found only in a Person, and you can probably guess who that Person is. This book is His story. In Him is the end of your quest for happiness. Christianity, Cults and Religions Pamphlet Rose Publishing, 1998-10 The Worth of a Man Catherine Dorsette, 2014-09-15 Too often people are tempted to give up on others, and most times they actually do, particularly when things, attitudes, and circumstances are seemingly unchangeable. But God wants to remind us that with Him, all things are possible; that there is hope for anyone alive today, no matter what the situation is or may have been. All that is required is for that one to reach out and accept the outstretched arms of the Savior, Jesus Christ, and He will lift up and set that one, the Rock, to stay.
