Implementing a Comprehensive Research Compliance Program Aurali Dade,Lori Olafson,Suzan M. DiBella,2015-07-01 The senior research compliance administrator has emerged as a critically important position as universities and other research organizations face an increasingly intricate regulatory environment These administrators are tasked with a special challenge ensuring that their institutions conduct safe ethical and compliant research while also helping researchers understand and meet compliance requirements and achieve their research goals These competing responsibilities can make the role of the research administrator complex however those who serve in this role may find that they have limited preparation for the challenges and little or no formal education in the field Thus the goal of this handbook is to provide practical guidance to research administrators who are responsible for a wide variety of compliance programs Previous volumes on these topics have focused primarily on educating research faculty staff and students An assumption in many of these handbooks is that all additional questions related to research ethics and regulations should be directed to the senior research administrator yet the books have limited guidance intended for the senior research administrators themselves This handbook is designed therefore to serve as a detailed program implementation manual for these administrators who are expected to be conversant on a broad range of complex ethical and regulatory topics and to provide guidance to those conducting research as well as upper administration and others interested in safe ethical and compliant research Report to the Congress of the Department of Defense in Accordance with Section 2455, Title 10, U.S.C. of the Defense Cataloging and Standardization Act of 1952 ,1954 Digest of Ethiopia's National Policies, Strategies and Programs Taye Assefa,2008 Having just emerged from a prolonged civil war and faced with the urgent tasks of establishing political stability and reinvigorating an economy in tatters the Transitional Government of Ethiopia 1991 1995

had to set a new direction for the economic reconstruction and social rehabilitation of the war torn and poverty ridden country During the Transitional Period a spate of new policies and strategies defining the development priorities goals and implementation instruments of the new regime led by the EPRDF was introduced This work is a synthesis of various sectoral policies and an attempt to trace the genesis of the policies highlight the continuities significant departures and other salient features Each of the reviews in this digest briefly analyses the critical elements of the policies identifies major gaps in the conceptualisation of the policy as well as the achievements registered and the challenges encountered in its implementation The authors also try to identify the outstanding issues to be addressed by policymakers and suggest remedies The policy reviews have been grouped into three parts and presented under social economic and governance sectors
