The New Time and Space John Potts, 2015-09-15

In the networked age we are living with changed parameters of time and space Mobile networked communication fosters a form of virtual time and space which is super imposed onto territorial space Time is increasingly composed of interruptions and distractions as smartphone users are overwhelmed by messages The Digital Ecosystem of Kenya Carolin Stötzel, 2024-09-26 The impact of the digital transformation on countries sustainable development is increasingly discussed in both theory and practice This multidisciplinary book analyzes the implications of digital technologies and services for governance structures and government action particularly in Kenya Using the emerging concept of digital ecosystems it uniquely combines digital development sustainability and governance research This book identifies factors characterizing digital ecosystems and challenges to their sustainable digital development e g lack of common understanding power asymmetries and dependencies of multi stakeholders For addressing these challenges it proposes coordination mechanisms including governance roles governance formats such as multi stakeholder partnerships as well as alternative solutions such as coordinative digital platforms These findings emphasize a deeper discussion around the digital transformation as a driving force and the global emphasis on partnerships if these are to foster and not impede sustainable development About the author Carolin Stötzel holds a PhD in Political Science focusing on digital policy and international cooperation She is an expert in digital transformation governance and sustainable development Autobiographical Identities in Contemporary Arab Culture

Valerie Anishchenkova, 2014-07-16 Over the last 40 years autobiography in Arab societies has moved away from exemplary life narratives and toward more unorthodox techniques such as erotic memoir writing postmodernist self fragmentation cinematographic self projection and blogging Valerie Anishchenkova argues that the Arabic autobiographical genre has evolved into a mobile unrestricted category arming authors with narrative tools to articulate their selfhood Reading works from Arab nations such as Egypt Iraq Morocco Syria and Lebanon Anishchenkova connects the century s rapid political and ideological developments to increasing autobiographical experimentation in Arabic works The immense scope of her study also forces consideration of film and online forms of self representation and offers a novel theoretical framework to these various modes of autobiographical cultural production Carl Schmitt and The Buribunks Edwin Bikundo, Kieran

Tranter, 2022-04-06 In 1918 a young Carl Schmitt published a short satirical fiction entitled The Buribunks He imagined a future society of beings who consistently wrote and disseminated their personal diaries Schmitt would go on to become the infamous philosopher of the exception and for a while the Crown Jurist of the Third Reich The Buribunks ironically for beings that lived only for self memorialisation has been mostly lost to history However the digital realm with its emphasis on the informatic traces generated by human doing and the continual interest in Schmitt s work to explain and criticise contemporary constellations of power suggests that The Buribunks is a text whose epoch has come This volume includes the first full translation into English of The Buribunks and a selection of critical essays on the text its meanings in the digital present its playing with and criticism of the literary form and its place within Schmitt s life and work The Buribunks and the essays provide a complex critical and provocative invitation to reimagine the relations between the human and their imprint and legacy within archives and repositories There is a fundamental exploration of what it means to be a being intensely aware of writing itself This is not just a volume for critical lawyers literary scholars and the Schmitt literati It is a volume that challenges a broad range of disciplines from philosophy to critical data studies to reflect on the digital present and its assembled and curated beings It is a volume that provides a set of fantastically located concepts images and histories that traverse ideas and practices play and politics power and possibility
