

I Shall Protect the Forests

by Lenore Hetrick

Have you ever really looked at trees,
And seen their perfect beauty?
If you have, you know that their protection
Is a stern and sacred duty.
Protection of that spreading grandeur,
Through many summers grown,
Safeguarding of those temples green
Where the song of bird is known.

Then remember that the forest fire
Is an enemy to fight.
It is a tree assassin to be Watched both day and night.
A camp fire left unguarded or
A match tossed carelessly
May bring destruction with great loss,
And deepest tragedy.

When next you see the wide-flung branches
Of a graceful pine,
Think to yourself, "A sacred service
Is part and parcel of mine.
I resolve to protect all trees forever,
And guard their heaven-sent beauty,
To save the forests of our land
Shall ever be my duty."

The Voice of Nature in Ted Hughes's Writing for Children Lorraine Kerslake,2018-06-12 Despite the fame Ted Hughes s poetry has achieved there has been surprisingly little critical writing on his children s literature This book identifies the importance of Hughes s children s writing from an ecocritical perspective and argues that the healing function that Hughes ascribes to nature in his children s literature is closely linked to the development of his own sense of environmental responsibility This book will be the first sustained examination of Hughes s greening in relation to his writing for children providing a detailed reading of Hughes s children s literature through his poetry prose and drama as well as his critical essays and letters In addition it also explores how Hughes s children s writing is a window to the poet s own emotional struggles as well as his environmental consciousness and concern to reconnect a society that has become alienated from nature This book will be of great interest to not only those studying Ted Hughes but also students and scholars of environment and literature ecocriticism children s literature and twentieth century literature Nature & Future Wilson Amooro,2015-06-05 Praise Report Wow I am blown away The heart of each child shines through The depth and magnitude of the poetry is felt I marvel in the fact that so many of our youth appreciate and care about the environment and speak so highly of her Through their powerful intelligent and descriptive words inspiration too is felt I love how so many suggest solutions and offer ways or help I finished the poetry feeling refreshed and inspired by our new generation of future leaders environmentalist and citizens of the world Zakiya Penny Founder Director Sabayet Inc Nature and Future is an uplifting piece of work full of hope for our planet It is most inspiring because it was written by children who are placing an inter generational call for action today to shift power towards tomorrow I call these kids nature s future They are demanding a clean and green future in the most creative manner It corrects the philosophical mistake which assumes that mankind is separate from our ecological system so we should subdue use and destroy it They rather call for preservation and conservation from both present and future generations The children demonstrate a clear understanding of the principle of Ubuntu respect for one s self respect for others and respect for the environment I highly recommend it to everybody especially children and young people who represent the hope expressed in the pages of this ecological beauty of poetry that choose people over profit and ecosystem over economics Gideon Commey Climate Reality Leader Ghana Youth Environmental Movement GYEM
