Kinch, 2013-07-31 It has always struck me that whilst I can find any number of books on selling or marketing or getting rich quick I have never found a book that showed start up companies how to succeed in tough markets In order to be successful in that environment you need to pull together all the threads of your business so that you make yourself your company and your product or service so attractive that customers will want to search for you as much you want to search for them It is using the approach outlined in this book and the experience gained from building several successful businesses that we took on the competition went international and became the number one layer in our chosen markets Not bad when you consider that we started in our back bedroom and did it all without borrowing a penny What s more we are sure you can do this and this book explains how

Successful Social Networking in Public Libraries Walt Crawford,2014 Most commentaries to date on library use of social networks such as Facebook and Twitter have focused on a handful of well funded public libraries with high profile employees Now Crawford s Successful Social Networking in Public Libraries fills in the rest of the picture offering for the first time an in depth look at how a large variety of public libraries are using social networks Examining nearly 6 000 libraries across the US Crawford Analyzes social network usage by libraries of many different sizes and funding levels showing how many of them are active and effective in quite different ways Offers many examples that will help other libraries establish or refine their own social networking activities Lays out several key questions that libraries should ask themselves such as Who do we want to reach and What s the best way to interact with communities Gives libraries guidelines for setting social networking goals and conducting ongoing evaluation Includes illuminating comments from numerous librarians on the front lines of communication Based on broad research Crawford draws a vivid portrait that shows how a wide range of public libraries is conducting digital outreach and marketing through social networking
