Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

20 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover.'"² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, "O LORD, please remember that I have walked before you in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly. "And before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him: "Turn back, and say to Hezekiah the leader of my people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD, and I will add fifteen years to your life. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake.'"⁷ And Isaiah said, "Bring a cake of figs, and let them take and lay it on the boil, that he may recover."

"And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?"⁸ And Isaiah said, "This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?"⁹ And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten steps. Rather let the shadow go back ten steps."¹⁰ And Isaiah the prophet called to the LORD, and he brought the shadow back ten steps, by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.

Hezekiah and the Babylonian Envoys

¹¹ At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah. For he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. "And Hezekiah welcomed them, and he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory; all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them."¹² Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say to you? From where did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They come from a far country, from Babylon."¹³ He said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hezekiah answered, "They have seen that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

"Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: "Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD."¹⁶ And some of your own sons, who will come from you, whom you will father, shall be taken away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."¹⁷ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have said, there will be peace."

¹⁸ The rest of the things that he made the pool and the wall are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah?¹⁹ And Hezekiah son reigned in his

Manasseh Reigns

21 Manasseh was his son, and he reigned in his place. He was Hephzibah. "According to the desire of his heart, he drove out before the LORD the Asherah and the high places, and made an altar to worship all the idols in the house. Jerusalem will I put of heaven in the two burned his son as an offering, and dealt with media in the sight of the LORD. The image of Asherah that the LORD said to David a Jerusalem, which I have put my name forever. I will be careful to do a and according to all that they did, do more evil than the before the people of Israel."

Manasseh's Idolatry

"And the LORD said to Manasseh king of Judah, 'You have done things more evil than before him, and has made for thus says the LORD upon Jerusalem and Judah, who hears of it will its measuring line of Samaria, and I will wipe it out, and I will turn it upside down, and give their heritage and give them shall become a prey and have done what is evil since the day their fathers.'"¹⁰ Moreover, Manasseh had filled Jerusalem with idols to sin against the LORD.

Faith Speak Journal:

Faith Speak Journal Charity Warren, 2015-01-09 How many times have we rehearsed the various worries temptations and anxieties we face throughout the day All of the worrying never achieves much other than give us a longer list the next day of possible things to worry about How exhausting Even worse we take our experiences from throughout the day and we take them with us to our quiet space In contrast to merely regurgitating circumstances that are filled with doubt fear and unbelief we can choose consciously to set aside time each day in quiet meditation at the same place and time to agree with God instead of our circumstance On one hand Satan wants to plant thoughts of defeatism On the other hand God wants us to know and claim the victory that is predestined on our behalf and written inside of the Word of God We must decide whose report we will believe Furthermore this Christian journey is about renewing our carnal minds and sinful natures with the Living Word of God Here is the place where we consciously align our will with God s will We choose to lay aside our burdens and all the daily weights we carry to pick up a load so light by casting our care before the throne and trading God s thoughts for our very own Agreeing with God must be done on purpose in purpose and by His purpose God is pursuing His people Literally He is chasing after you and whispering future into your thoughts and into your hearts Do not let it fall to the ground Harvest it Harvest a garden of faith on purpose and watch the results manifest in your life Plant seeds of faith by the words which proceed from your mouth Proverbs 18 21 instructs us about the power of life and death that lie in the tongue The Spirit of the Lord is urging us on to speak life

Faith Speaking Understanding Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2014-01-01 In this volume highly esteemed scholar Kevin Vanhoozer introduces readers to a way of thinking about Christian theology that takes the work he began in the groundbreaking 2005 book The Drama of Doctrine to its next level Vanhoozer argues that theology is not merely a set of cognitive beliefs but is also something we do that involves speech and action alike He uses a theatrical model to explain the ways in which doctrine shapes Christian understanding and forms disciples The church Vanhoozer posits is the preeminent theater where the gospel is performed with doctrine directing this performance Doctrines are not simply truths to be stored shelved and stacked but indications and directions to be followed practiced and enacted In performing doctrine Christians are shaped into active disciples of Jesus Christ He goes on to examine the state of the church in today s world and explores how disciples can do or perform doctrine Written in an accessible and engaging style Faith Speaking Understanding sets forth a compelling vision of what the church is and what it should be doing and demonstrates the importance of Christian doctrine for this mission Disciples who want to follow Christ in all situations need doctrinal direction as they walk onto the social stage in the great theater of the world The Christian faith is about acknowledging and participating in the great thing God is doing in our world making all things new in Christ through the Holy Spirit Doctrine ministers understanding of God of the drama of redemption of the church as a company of faithful players and of individual actors all of whom have important roles to play In an age where things fall apart and centers fail to hold doctrine centers us

P. Mynster and Professor H. L. Martensen at the press and at the attempt by modern philosophy to comprehend the incomprehensibility of faith Kierkegaard's reading notes include entries on Augustine the Stoics German mystics Luther pietist authors and Rousseau while his autobiographical reflections circle around the question of which if any of several essays explaining his life and works he ought to publish Perhaps unsurprisingly Kierkegaard's more personal reflections return once again to his public feud with M. A. Goldschmidt and his broken engagement to Regine Olsen Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced

Journals of the House of Lords Great Britain House of Lords,1701 Faith Talk Ruth Naylor,2019-08-09 The author s original intent in writing this memoir was to reflect on her life and share personal stories of faith with her children and grandchildren She writes of prayer and of God s often unrecognized availability presence and providence A writer editor at one Christian Writers Conference examined the developing manuscript and encouraged her to add questions at the end of each chapter directing reader reflection and extending the book s usefulness far beyond just family A contemplative Quaker upbringing created keen awareness of the Holy Spirit and established a mystical foundation for the author s life helping her understand what it means to be in an active living loving relationship with God a channel of divine love such as revealed in the life and teachings of Jesus Each chapter has its own theme and the stories are not always in chronological order because some themes recur over a lifetime The author shares openly the highs and lows of her less than perfect life things not uncommon to humankind but which are seldom subjects of conversation in our fast paced secular world The stories reveal vulnerability and challenges to faith as well as affirmations Poems and prayers written at or near the time of the unfolding stories plumb the depths of the author s experience Questions at the end of each chapter are similar to those a spiritual director might ask to invite consideration of one s own spiritual journey where faith has strengthened them where it has faltered or where it has invited new growth
