Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Fires in GunaiKurnai Country

Southern Africa is both a balancing act and a protracted process that requires positive attitudes informed by accommodative institutional frameworks. This book revolves around two key contemporary issues that cities around the globe are trying to achieve viz the need to build inclusive cities and the need to accommodate immigrants. The search for building inclusive cities is an on going challenge which most cities are grappling with. This challenge is complicated by the need to include immigrants who are always side lined by policies of host countries. This book discusses the host immigrant interface by providing a detailed insight of anchors of inclusive cities and a holistic picture of who immigrants are. These are then discussed contextually within the Southern African region where insight into selected cities is provided to some depth using empirical evidence. The discussion on inclusive cities and immigrants is a universal narrative targeting practitioners and students in town and regional planning, urban studies, urban politics, migration and international relations. The Southern African region once more provides an opportunity to further interrogate and understand the dynamics of immigration in selected cities. This book will also be of interest to policy makers dealing with challenges of inclusivity in the light of immigrants.

Choice and conscience: Lessons from South Africa for a global debate Satang Nabaneh, 2023-11-08

Choice and Conscience offers a fresh and insightful perspective on the highly debated issue of conscientious objection in abortion care. Satang Nabaneh's socio legal approach which draws on both traditional legal scholarship and African feminist intellectual traditions provides a nuanced understanding of how legal norms construct and maintain power relations. By focusing on the experiences of nurses in South Africa, Nabaneh explores the complexities of conscience, discretionary power and socio cultural and political factors that influence nurses' decisions about whether or not to conscientiously object. In the wake of the recent rollback of abortion rights in the United States and the trend towards liberalisation within the African region, Nabaneh provides an important African perspective on how the international human rights framework should strike a contextual balance between freedom of conscience and ensuring access to abortion. Choice and Conscience will interest lawyers, activists, policymakers, scholars and students exploring the dynamic intersections of law, healthcare and gender politics. Choice and Conscience stands as a significant and valuable addition to the ongoing global scholarship on this critical issue. It underscores the vital concept that intersectionality should occupy a central place in our examination of how various local contexts give rise to layered forms of privilege and disadvantage.

Dr Tlaleng Mofokeng, UN Special Rapporteur on the right to health

Nabaneh's study of law in action zeroes in on South African nurses' gatekeepers who often object to the practice for reasons of conscience. Her interviews of these nurses and her analysis complicate our understanding of challenges to abortion access, providing lessons applicable not only to South Africa and other African countries but everywhere where there is a gap between formal law and its application.

Mindy Jane Roseman, JD, PhD, Yale Law School

Written from an African feminist perspective, this book offers fresh insights into our understanding of the intersection between politics, mobilisation of discretionary power and the exercise of conscientious objection to abortion by mid level

providers Charles Ngwenya Professor of Law Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This book offers powerful insights about how informal and background norms in health systems function constrain or enable reproductive justice Focusing on conscientious objection to abortion by nurses including midwives in South Africa Nabaneh sketches the importance of a feminist analysis that is situated in Africans lived realities Alicia Ely Yamin Harvard University

Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Samantha Hargreaves, Courtney Morgan, Inge Konik, Sonia Phalatse, Busi Sibeko, Dineo Skosana, 2023-07 The Covid pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers Emancipatory Feminism in the time of Covid 19 The seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous Challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover womens responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa To contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women s grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives

Mental Health: Intervention Skills for the Emergency Services Tricia Scott, 2023-03-28 This book addresses the practical management of mental health scenarios in the emergency setting and offers first hand reflections on how emergency nurses practitioners and allied mental health professionals handle these situations Responding to mental health needs in emergency situations can be profoundly complex Frequently emergency nurses and other personnel express their feelings of powerlessness as they do not know what to say or do in order to achieve the best outcome and have concerns that their intervention may make the situation worse for those in their care How a practitioner confronts the mental health encounter and takes the essential steps in managing the event can have a critical impact on how that person copes in the future This book helps readers understand what is involved in mental health work in emergency situations and the practical psychosocial and spiritual tensions that arise from managing the event and the sequelae Moreover it shows that it may be possible to provide a more effective emergency mental health service This unique edited book presents critical reflections on aspects of mental health work gathered from the hands on experiences of African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example neonatal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment
